

GLEN WILLIAMS

GARDEN PARTY GRAND SUCCESS

A garden party, sponsored by the Friendship Club was held in the ball park last Friday evening. Vince Mountford was master-of-ceremonies and the program consisted of quartettes, solos, two dancing numbers, a magician and a rendition of "Mocking Bird Hill" by Vince and his two young sons. The ladies in the two booths, were kept busy selling hot dogs, coffee, pie and ice cream and soft drinks. A bouquet of "Dales" autographed roses to the oldest lady on grounds went to Mrs. William Sharpe of the Glen who is 92.

Visitors with Mr. and Mrs. W. Findlay this week are Mrs. Findlay's sister, Mrs. Sam Gordon and Mr. Gordon and Audrey, and Miss Beverley Cooper of Hamilton. Mr. Findlay had the misfortune this week to have a roll of paper drop on his foot at the Alliance Mill and is somewhat inconvenienced at present.

Barbara Hiltz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Hiltz, was five years old on Thursday, July 5th. Her party guests were Karen Collins, Susanne Blyth, Heather and Peter Hayes, Linda and Bernice Ward, Heather and Sandra Marchmont, Linda and Jackie Barclay, Donna Jo-Ann Keir, Liuda, Jeanette and Beverley Davies, Donna Stewart, Betty Hiltz Wayne Compton, Brenda and Larry Norton, Marilyn Murray, Michael and Bryan Hiltz, sister Bonnie and her grandmother Mrs. D. Barclay, and Mr. Len Marchmont. The Glen girls won their softball game against Unionville on Monday with a score of 15-3. One of their players, Marie Gibbs, in a ball practice, fell and twisted her arm. She was in Guelph General Hospital for x-rays on Tuesday.

Mrs. J. Davison, Mrs. J. Clark, Mr. Robinson and Russell Davison of Guelph visited with relatives in the Glen on Sunday.

Mrs. J. R. Williams, and Gwen spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Trevor Williams and Mrs. P. Cleave at their cottage at Meaford.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Davison and Gary of Toronto enjoyed a trip to Sarnia while on holidays last week and spent the week-end in the Glen with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Davison.

Stay-at-Home-Camp Next Week

The annual Stay at Home Camp, which will be sponsored this year by the Lions Club and the Ministerial Association will begin on Monday morning at 9:30 o'clock. The registration fee will be the same as that of other years, 25c per family. It is hoped that every girl and boy of Georgetown and vicinity will be able to attend.

The meeting places and leadership are as follows:

Girls 6-9 years: In St. George's Anglican Church Sunday School room, Eileen Oates, and Sylvia Lambert as activity leaders and Archdeacon W. G. O. Thompson will give the religious instruction.

Girls 9-12 years: The High School, Jean Ruddle and Gretchen Bradley instructors.

Boys 6-8 years: In the Georgetown Baptist Church Rev. A. Barker and Wm. McCormack instructors.

Boys 8-10 years: In the Knox Presbyterian Church Rev. A. Calder and Don Livingstone, instructors.

Boys 10-12 years: In St. John's Memorial Hall, Rev. A. Cowan and W. Gribon, instructors.

Girls and Boys 12 years and over: In the Old Town Hall, Rev. J. Maxwell and Marilyn Bell, instructors.

A special feature of this year's camp is a program arranged for the pre-school children and their mothers to be held in St. John's Memorial Hall on Wednesday, July 18th from 3 to 4 o'clock when a kindergarten of the Air Program will be presented with some additional treats and also on Thursday, July 26th from 3 to 4 o'clock when a puppet show by Charles Colville, noted marionette performer.

"The Camp Roar" will be published daily and will carry instructions and news concerning coming events. Parents should read the Camp Road in order to be informed.

Certificates of merit and Camp Ribbons are to be presented to those who attend 75 per cent of the Camp functions and who are recommended by the instructors as good campers and having completed a satisfactory amount of work.

In addition to the regular morning program of Sing Song, study period, games, and handwork there will be special features on Tuesday, Thursday and Friday afternoons of the first week. These will include: Movies, group hikes and weiner roast, trip to Stanley Park, and an hour of fun with Pepo, the clown magician. Special features for the second week of camp will be given in the Camp Roar and next week's Herald.

Any adults of the community wishing to help the instructors for a half-hour or hour period or longer are requested to phone Rev. J. M. Smith at 440R. The instructors can give any necessary instruction to such assistants in a few minutes. Your cooperation will make for a better camp.

Parents, Children, Citizens of Georgetown... lets go for a great "Stay-at-Home-Camp in 1951."

Girls and Boys be on hand at 9:30 o'clock Monday morning at your particular meeting place.

SCOUT NEWS

Our apologies for failing to have a column last week. All our energies were directed toward Cub Camp.

The two Cub Camps held at Humber Glen Camp near Bolton were a grand success. The first camp held from June 29th to July 2nd had 31 campers and the second camp from July 2nd to July 5th had 22 campers. Did the boys have a good time? We suggest you chat with one of them. The program consisted of crafts, hikes, games, swim and worship, etc. and every boy cooperated splendidly.

The Cub Camps were a success largely because of the splendid leadership given voluntarily by Reg Broomhead, who chiefed the first camp. Roy Ward and Walt Richardson who carried a great deal of the sports and activity program. Cabin leaders Don Livingstone, Wayne Gribbon and Paul Frust were of great service. Mrs. R. Broomhead and Mrs. J. M. Smith supervised an interesting craft period, and Mrs. R. Hardman and Mrs. W. Broughton turned out the meals on time and in satisfying quality and quantity. Thanks of the Committee and Boys go to one and all.

The splendid planning and work of the Committee and Ladies Auxiliary, and the generous support and cooperation of the citizens of Georgetown, made the camp possible for every Cub and Scout at a very moderate fee. At a later date we hope to report the actual cost per day and the actual fee paid by the boy.

We shall remember the camps of 1951 as a success and to all who cooperated in making them such.

The Boy Scout Camp is in process at Irish Lake north of Flesherton with a registration of 22 campers. More of this in the next column.

MACKENZIE NEWS

If nothing else will do it, we can count on the Orangemen to bring us a spell of hot weather.

Did you ever think of insulating against the heat as well as the cold? We have a supply of Fiberglas rolls and the cost is modest at 5¢ per sq. ft. for 2" and 7¢ per sq. ft. for 3". Granulated rock wool costs $1.30 per carton containing 5 cu. ft. or 4½¢ per sq. ft. for 2" and 6½¢ per sq. ft. for 3". See you watching the "Walk on Thursday."
