Dredge Family Reunion Held at Ernie Tindale's

Thirty members of the Dredge family enjoyed a picnic on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Tindale. Guests of honour were Mr. and Mrs. William Dredge of Nassagaweya who will soon celebrate their 57th wedding anniversary. Those present included: Mr. and Mrs. William Dredge and George, Nassagaweya, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Morton, Mr. and Mrs. A. McMillan, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Matthews and son, Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Dredge and Mrs. Jenkins Port Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Murray McConnell and sons, Milton, Mr. and Mrs. William King, Betty and Gail, Georgetown, Mr. Allan McGillivray, Toronto.

On Thursday afternoon, July 12th, a very pleasant time was had at the home of Isabel and Marion Currie when about thirty girl friends honoured Miss Jessie Wingfield who is being married on Saturday. Five tables of court whist was played then the bride opened the lovely gifts followed by a delicious lunch.

On Friday evening, July 13th, Mrs. Ernie Tindale opened her home and entertained seventeen close neighbours in Jessie's honour. The evening was spent in making a bride's book after which Jessie opened the many beautiful gifts. Lunch ended the pleasant time.

Last Sunday afternoon while Ralph Cunningham was swimming with a bunch of his chums he hit his head while diving. His parents took him up to Guelph Hospital and the latest word is that he is doing nicely and hopes to be home on Tuesday.

On Monday afternoon Mrs. Charlie Austin had the misfortune to catch her little finger in the hay-mower.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Hunter (6th Line) motored to Alliston and spent the week-end with friends.

Sunday, July 15th, was St. Swithin's Day. We are thankful it didn't rain so maybe we'll get a drier harvest than we have had for the hay-ing.

Scott Family Reunion At Mrs. A McDonald's

(last week)

A reunion of the Scott family and friends numbering one hundred and ten people was held at the home of Mrs. Angus McDonald on Sunday. Guests were present from Milton, Rockwood, Acton, Georgetown, Glen Williams, Limehouse and Toronto. Musical numbers were provided by Tom Haines and Russell McDonald, accompanied by Miss M. Hall and bagpipe selections by Inez Scott.

An added feature was a birthday gift of a well filled purse to Mr. Jos. Scott by Wm. McDonald, Sr. of Georgetown on behalf of all present and a speech by Arthur Lane wishing Joe well. Taken completely by surprise, Joe made a fitting reply of appreciation.

Guests present included: Mrs. Birdie Hall and Miss Marjory, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfrid McEachern of Acton, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McDonald and family, Mr. and Mrs. V. Hepburn and family, Mr. and Mrs. Cedric Cross, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Packer and children, Mrs. John H. Scott, Mr. Jack Crichton, Mr. and Mrs. Norman McDonald and Doug, Mrs. Jack Cunningham, Paul and Billie, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Tost and Grenville, Mr. and Mrs. Alex McDonald and Gail, Mrs. Ed Hill, Mr. Ross Hill, all of Georgetown, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lane, Toronto, Mrs. Pearl Lillie, Shirley and Clifford of Everton, Mr. and Mrs. Russell McDonald and children, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dredge and Mrs. Crawshaw, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tonelli and family, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Muddle and Sheila, all of Milton, Mr. and Mrs. B. Curson and children, Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Small, Miss Gladys McIsaac, Miss Mona Ecker, Mr. Jos. Scott, Miss Inez Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Norton and Kay, Audrie Currie, Mr. and Mrs. Archie McDonald and children, Mrs. Robt. Lane.

Miss Olive Marshall of Toronto is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mitchell.

Thirty one scouts and cubs of the 4th troop of Long Branch and their leader spent Tuesday picnicking around the caves here.

The sympathy of this community is extended to the widow and family of the late D. S. McDonald.

The W. A. sponsored a concert held in the Hall on Tuesday evening. A good program was provided by Sheila Paul of Acton, with violin selections, Mrs. Wm. Cramer with recitations, duct by Marilyn Souther and Muriel Appleyard, duets by Mrs. McDermott and Miss Shirley Ross, solos by Rev. A. Calder, Mrs. J. Roughy and Mr. Hansen were accompanists. Pie, ice cream and coffee were items in demand at an outdoor booth.

We are sorry that little Gloria Jones is in the Sick Children's Hospital, Toronto, where she is being treated for mastoid condition.

Mr. Sam Gisby was home from Sunnybrook Hospital over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Packer and son were Sunday visitors with the H. Nortons.

The C. E. Merediths and the Karns visited in Kitchener on Sunday.

We welcome Mr. and Mrs. Max Bradbury, a recent bride and groom who are at present making their home in the village.

We regret to report that the illness of Mr. T. H. Cook necessitated his removal to hospital in Guelph on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Sanford and Billie are holidaying at their cottage at Waubashene.

Sunday visitors with the W. Mitchell's were Mrs. H. Scott and Patsy and Miss Pearl Scott of Georgetown.

Rev. E. A. Curry of Acton baptized Michael John Noble, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Noble, and Edgar, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Karn when a family party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Noble a week ago.

ST. JOHN'S UNITED CHURCH

Regular morning worship was conducted in St. John's on Sunday by Mr. Wm. Gibb, minister of the Ballinacree Circuit of the United Church of Canada. Rev. J. M. Smith was conducting sacrament services at Ballinacree, Churchhill, and Melville. Mr. Gibb gave a challenging message to the congregation and A. Tost was soloist for the morning. Miss Isobel Dobson accompanied the congregational singing at the piano in the absence of N. Laird who is on vacation.
