Marguerite Lucas Weds London Police Officer

Daughter of two former Georgetown residents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Lucas, Marguerite Edna Lucas was married in London on July 7th. She became the bride of Frederick David Bruce in a ceremony performed at the Church of the Redeemer by Rev. Arthur Hough. The groom is the son of Mrs. Constance Webber, London, England, and the late William Bruce.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length gown of frosted organza over pale blue, fashioned with short sleeves and bouffant skirt. A headdress of orange blossoms held her shoulder-length veil and she carried a cascade of pale blue gardenias and stephanotis.
 Mrs. Donald Black, matron of honour, wore powder blue lace and carried Sweetheart roses. Fred Sutherland was best man and Ronald Lucas, brother of the bride, and Richard Dyer were ushers.
 Receiving the guests following the wedding, the bride's mother wore a navy blue dress with corsage of gardenias, and the mother of the groom wore turquoise blue with corsage of gardenias. Mr. and Mrs. Bruce left for a honeymoon in Muskoka, the bride travelling in a grey gabardine suit with powder blue accessories and corsage of gardenias. They will reside in London.
 The bride is a graduate of London Normal School and a member of the teaching staff of Knollwood Park School, London. The groom is on the city police force. Among the guests at the wedding were the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Hornby and Mrs. Charles Lucas Sr. of town.

Alliance Picnic at Stanley Park

The Alliance Paper Social & Recreational committee Georgetown Division held their annual Mill picnic at Stanley Park, Erin, Sat. Saturday, with some 300 people present.

The social committee spared no effort in making the picnic the best to date and wish to extend to all those who helped by either work or donations a very sincere thank you.

Though slightly marred by adverse picnic weather a good time was enjoyed by all present. Games, races and a very bountiful supper were the order of the

THE STORM
 The youngest picnicker was Keith Engleby, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Engleby, Glen Williams, while the eldest picnicker was Mr. Cosmaburn 82, who was accompanied by Mrs. Cosmaburn.
 Sympathy was extended to Mr. William Dwyer, who suffered an injured knee while competing in one of the sports events, and was taken to Guelph Hospital for medical treatment by Mr. C. P. Boutelle.

Due to rain the picnickers left for home shortly after supper, and so ended another picnic day of fun and laughter for old and young alike.

The sea arose in the winter's wrath Of the wild Nor'wester's might; And the freighter staggered a lurching path, Through the hours of an awesome night.
 But the men of the sea, who never boast, Ah, those silent unsung men, Were there when needed, each at his post, Knew what to do, and when. And the old ship rose to the towering top, Of each merciless breaker gray, And wallowed-down each watery slope In a welter of flying spray.

Down on the stoke-hole's reeling plates Where the furnace doors glowed red, The veteran counselled his rookie mates, And this is what he said, "We must banish our fears, both you and I, We must carry our share of the load, Our mates on deck are tried and true, And over us all there is God." Waters that hiss on the heated plates In a reeling stoke-hole dim, A fearless veteran who rallied his mates, And pointed the way to Him.
