

GLEN WILLIAMS

PLANS ADVANCE FOR GLEN FALL FAIR

The ladies of St. Alban's Guild are busy with plans for their fall fair which is being held on September 8th. The fair has had a steady growth since its inception a few years ago and each year sees more exhibits and more people attending. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hancock have had as their guest for the past week Miss Mavis White of Toronto. Steve Halpin spent a few days visiting at Sutton. Mrs. Jack Puzey, Guelph, is visiting with her sister, Mrs. Jack Wheeler and Mr. Wheeler. Jack McQuarrie has had his cousin Ned Dillon of Toronto, holidaying with him.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hooper and Bob are spending this week at Lake Simcoe. Doug Ward is Bob's guest for the week.

The many friends of Mrs. Jack Hancock will be glad to know she is much improved after an operation at Guelph General Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. William Korzack, Nancy and Karen, with Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ball of town motored to Niagara Falls on Sunday, staying to see the falls illuminated at night.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Hancock and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hancock with their families spent Sunday at Bel-fountain.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hoare and son Guy of Detroit, Michigan, were visitors last week with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hoare.

Miss Gwen Williams, Toronto, spent last week with her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Preston and Sharon visited last week in Dundalk with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Marshall.

BIRTHS

SYKES — Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Sykes announce the birth of a son, William David, at Peel Memorial Hospital on Tuesday, August 7th, 1951.

MEMORIALS

DICKENSON — In loving memory of Pte. Harry David Dickenson, Royal Regiment of Canada, who died August 21st, 1942, after Dieppe.

—Always remembered, Mother, John, Thomas and Christine.

SCOTT — In loving memory of a dear father, John R. Scott, who passed away August 18th, 1946.

Time speeds on, five years have passed, Since death its gloom its shadows cast,

Within our home where all seemed bright,

And took from us a shining light. We miss Dear Dad and ever will, His vacant chair no one can fill, Down here we mourn but not in vain,

For up in Heaven we'll meet Dad again.

—Always ever remembered by daughter Birdie, and son-in-law Bill Shelbourne.

SCOTT — In loving memory of our dear Grandad, John R. Scott, who passed away August 18th, 1946. Our lips cannot tell how we miss our Grandad.

Our hearts cannot tell what to say, God alone knows how we miss him In a home that is lonesome today.

—Always ever remembered by Grandchildren, Mrs. Bertha Powell, Mrs. Dorothy Brown, Mrs. Helen Cox, Ilean Shelbourne and Diane Shelbourne.

SCOTT — In loving memory of a dear father, John Scott, who passed away August 18th, 1946.

He has to one a last farewell, He said goodbye to none, The heavenly gates were opened wide.

A loving voice said come, I often sit and think of you,

The things you used to say and do, I wonder why you had to die,

Without a chance to say goodbye.

—Ever remembered by daughter Irene and son-in-law Ed.

SCOTT — In loving memory of a dear husband John R. Scott, who passed away August 18th, 1946.

Beautiful memories of a husband so dear,

I cherish still with love sincere, I miss his love and cheery way,

His kind and loving care, It is lonely here without you,

With whom I spent my happiest days,

As long as I live I will cherish his name,

Still in my heart he is living yet, For I loved him too dearly to ever forget.

—Sadly missed by his loving wife Elizabeth.

CARDS OF THANKS

ALLEN—Mr. Thomas Allen wishes to thank friends and organizations for sending him fruit, flowers, cigarettes, and cards while he was a patient in St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph.

Chatting... with M. H. B.

WE'VE OFTEN heard about the famous "Calgary Stampede" held the first part of July in Calgary, and know several people including some from town, who would hate to miss it. We've always been curious as to just exactly what goes on at this unique show. So last weekend, when we had visitors from that western city, we found out quite a lot about it.

Not that we're going to attempt a resume of the event that would be almost like describing all the activities at the Toronto Exhibition. And since we weren't taking any notes at the time of our chat, we can't remember much of the specific information. But we do recall getting the distinct impression that the Stampede is not an event taking place at a showground only. It involves the whole city more or less. For instance, it would be impossible to walk or drive down any of the main business thoroughfares while the Stampede is on, and not be aware of it. Indians from nearby reservations walk around in full regalia, and cowboys in their best chaps and spurs ride on horseback or quite frequently set up a camp stove on a busy corner and proceed to fry up a mess of "flapjacks" to give away to any passerby who wishes one.

ON THE FIRST day of the Stampede there is a monster parade. We believe it was this year they imported beautiful golden palomino ponies from California, equipped with the most elaborate saddles and trappings, which would run in cost well over a thousand dollars. And of course there were Indians and chuck-wagons and goodniss-knows-what-all. This year, too, there was a small band of "wild men" from a neighbouring city. They had spent some months growing thick, long beards for the occasion, and clad in scanty fur skins, a-la 'Alley Oop' of the comics, with footwear to match, they brandished enormous knotty clubs, almost as big as themselves. These wild men did not confine their crazy antics to the parade alone, but had themselves a simply wonderful time trying to capture and kiss any pretty girl to catch their eye. They even invaded a large department store, had some fun at the lingerie counters, and then threw the feminine sales staff into a near panic by chasing them up and down behind the counters and in the aisles. Were the store managers annoyed? — Not a bit, for the wild men had gathered up a large following and their store was filled with prospective customers after the wild men left for their next venture.

Talking with one of the "prehistorics" the next day — incidentally a then shaven and very civilized man — our weekend guest asked him if they had fulfilled any other engagements in their "wild men role" and it turned out that they had been guests at celebrations in several western cities, and had even had an offer from the Toronto Ex, but their wives objected to having them go. They had had those big beards long enough.

AND IT WAS last year, if we recall rightly, that officials in charge of the Stampede decided that in order to keep better control of the Indians attending the celebrations, that they would revoke their hitherto "everything free" privileges, and charge them admission, since there had been a bit of trouble with some of the braves who imbibed more than was good for them. The result was bad feeling between the "Stoney's" and the Stampede, and the Indians simply did not go to the celebrations. The rumour was circulated that the tribe had put a curse on the Stampede. The result? — maybe — but the fact was that it rained every day and night for last year's Stampede. And again we say, the result? — the Stoney's had their privileges reinstated this year. The weather this year very good!

New Cleaning Firm Starts Business Here

A new business opens in Georgetown this week. Frank King has entered partnership with a Toronto man, Tom Graham, to establish King's Cleaners. They will have their office on Mill Street in the premises in Dale & Bennett's building formerly tenanted by an optician, Gordon Knifton.

Both men have had much experience in the cleaning business. Mr. Graham is a practical man who learned the trade with Langley's in Toronto. He has been at the business seventeen years, the last five as head cleaner with White & Son. A native of Toronto, he is married and has two children, David, 5 and Robert, 2. He is a sportsman and is particularly interested in football, having played with such teams as Cormacks, Balm Beach and Toronto Shipbuilders in the city.

Mr. King is a Georgetown boy who has been agent for White and Son for the past four years. He is married to Ethel Alcott and has two children, Elaine and Linda. He has been serving the public ever since his first job fourteen years ago with Haddell's Bakery. He later worked for Kemshead's Bakery, and on delivery trucks for Weston's and Brown's Bread.

Jack Hillier, a nephew of Mr. King, who has been working at Thompson's Hardware, will be driving one of the firm's two delivery trucks.

SILVER-WOOD WILL VISIT BROTHER IN NOVA SCOTIA

Miss Jean Ruddell and Miss Marion Williamson left on Thursday morning on a motor trip to the east coast where they will visit with Mr. and Mrs. James Ruddell, Greenwood Air Field, Nova Scotia.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Evans and family of Acton, also Mr. Arthur Milne of Cote des Neiges, Montreal were Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Horace Bell.

The fall fair committee of Silver-Wood W.I. met on Monday afternoon to discuss an exhibit for the local fair. The meeting was held at the home of the president, Mrs. E. L. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. Hay of Listowel were week-end visitors with her brother B. S. Case.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hahn of Detroit were week-end visitors at Skone, with Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Corbett.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Smith had as week-end guests at their country home Mrs. W. T. Junkin of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Junkin, Kathie and Robert of Memphis, Tennessee. They left on Tuesday morning to visit in Ottawa.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Souther had as their guests last week his uncle, Mr. A. J. Poole of Greenfield, Mass., also his aunt, Mrs. Lotte Wagner, of Toronto. Sunday visitors at the same home included Mrs. Hazel Thorpe and son, Warren, of Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Trowe enjoyed a few days last week fishing at Rice Lake.

Miss Rowena and Wilma Stull spent the week-end at Gravenhurst. (last week)

Mr. Russell Miller spent the week-end at Mount Forest.

Billis Gillies of Wasaga Beach is vacationing at the farm of Mrs. Annie Stull, Eighth Line.

Mrs. C. Thornton of Georgetown is spending a week with her daughter, Mrs. E. L. Miller, Milthorn Farm.

Recent visitors with Mrs. W. J. Roe and Mr. William Lane were Mr. and Mrs. E. Lane, also Mrs. E. Lane, Sr., of Glen Huron.

A shower was held on Thursday evening at the home of Miss Marjorie McEnery to honour Mrs. Joe Fry (Doreen Appleyard). Several Georgetown business girls attended. Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Corbett attended the wedding of their youngest son, Richard in Toronto on Saturday, August 4th.
