Showers, Presentations For Miss Mary Ismond

On Wednesday afternoon, August 29th, a miscellaneous shower was held for Mary Ismond at the home of Mrs. John Alexander and Jessie. A short sing-song and a musical number played by Marion and Evelyn Bird, then a beautifully decorated basket piled with lovely gifts was carried in and set before Mary who with the assistance of Mrs. Thomas Alderson opened them. The Women's Institute also presented the bride with a clothes hamper. Mary thanked the ladies for the gifts and invited them to visit her in her new home at Brampton. Lunch closed this pleasant afternoon. On Tuesday evening Miss Gladys Ruddell held a pantry shelf shower at her home for Mary when her public school mates and her teacher Mrs. John Bird were present. Suitable gifts for the pantry were received followed by a dainty lunch.
