Twilight Farm Meets At Two District Farms

Scotsdale Farm owned and operated by S. G. Bennett near Georgetown and the Twin Elms farm of Joyce Bros., near Milton, were the scene of Twilight Meetings on consecutive nights recently. Despite the busy season, both meetings were well attended by the older breeders as well as the members of Halton's three calf clubs. Under floodlights provided for the occasion, two excellent classes of livestock were judged at each point. At the former point, T. C. Amos and Agricultural Representative J. E. White-lock were the official judges while at Joyce Bros., Messrs. J. L. Chisholm and B. B. Hodgins, Secretary of the Ontario Guernsey Club, officiated.

The programme at each point included demonstrations on showmanship, curling, clipping for the show ring, etc. Those in attendance were most appreciative of the courtesies extended by the hosts of both Scotsdale and Twin Elms Farms.
