Beatty Travel Show in Georgetown Saturday

Georgetown will have a look at an elaborate new advertising device of the Beatty Company on Saturday when the company's Travel Show will be in Georgetown afternoon and evening.

Richardson's Hardware, local Beatty dealers, have booked the travel van here and the bug show on wheels will be parked in front of the store all day. It features the Beatty automatic washer, and a complete demonstration of the machine, plus movies and free gifts for everyone who attends is promised. The auditorium in the van seats forty people. On the road for only two weeks, over 7,000 people have seen the show.

Inside Richardson's, all Beatty appliances, including electric irons, will be on display. A pressure cooker is offered as a lucky draw prize to those attending and there are also chances on winning one of ten automatic washers.

Coming on fall fair day, it is expected that there will be large crowds all day to see this latest in advertising ideas.
