MacMillan-Corner Wedding At Melville United Church

Baskets of yellow and pale mauve gladioli decorated Melville United Church for a late summer wedding, when Barbara Lois, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Corner, became the bride of Harry A. MacMillan, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. MacMillan. Rev. A. O. W. Foreman assisted by Mr. William Gibb officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Irene Cook, sister of the bride sang the Lord's Prayer before the service and "Because" during the signing of the register. Miss Marguerite Thompson played the wedding music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a graceful gown of white nylon net over taffeta with a Chantilly lace collar and tulle point sleeves. The bouffant skirt was fashioned with panels of lace, falling into a slight train. Her fingertip veil of nylon net and baby seed pearls, was held by a cloche cap of net over taffeta, studded with seed pearls. The bride carried a cascade of American Beauty roses and stephanotis with satin streamers.

Miss Jean McEachern maid of honour was gowned in dark orchid nylon net over taffeta. Mrs. Walter Scott, sister of the groom and Mrs. James Setterfield were similarly attired in a pale shade of orchid. The bridesmaids all wore jackets similar to the bride with wide picture hats and matching accessories. She wore a corsage of Talisman roses. The groom's mother assisted, wearing a wine tissue faille dress with matching accessories. She wore a corsage of white gladioli and fern.

For travelling to points north, the bride chose a mustard gabardine suit with rust brown accessories, and a corsage of Talisman roses. Upon their return the young couple will reside in the Belfountain district.

Guests were present from Toronto, Brampton, Hamilton, Georgetown, Guelph, Lethbridge and Blyth. The bride is a niece of Mr. and Mrs. James Corner, Stewarttown.

SARNIA LADY WILL BE ST. JOHN'S SPEAKER

Morning worship at St. John's United Church on Sunday was conducted by the minister Rev. John Smith. The lesson was read from the Epistle of James, chapter four, and the text from the twenty-seventh verse of the same chapter — "He that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin." The sermon theme was "Knowledge Is Not Enough." The choir under the leadership of Mr. N. Laird sang the anthem "Saviour of the World" and Miss Ruth Evans sang the solo "Correct Me Lord."

The flowers on the communion table were placed to the memory of the late Howard C. Wrigglesworth by his wife and sons.

It was announced that one of the prominent lady workers of the United Church of Canada, Mrs. Clayton Searle of Sarnia, would be the guest speaker at morning worship next Sunday.

U.N. to Issue Own Postage Stamps

The United Nations postage stamps shown above will appear during the fall of 1951 and will be used in all mail sent from U.N. Headquarters. Under a recent agreement between U.N. and the United States, U.N. will issue its own postage stamps and will establish a United Nations Post Office to replace the U.S. Post Office now in operation at Headquarters. Ordinary stamps will be issued in 11 denominations. The airmail series will be issued in 4 denominations.

MACKENZIE NEWS

These are the golden September days — perfect for everyone but the hay fever sufferers.

If you need a little heat in the mornings and evenings, a good buy is Alberta coal at $17.75 per ton. Be good to yourself this winter and install a "Step-Saver" Draft control at the modest cost of $29.75. It keeps your home at an even temperature and saves running up and down to the cellar. The "Step-Saver" has the added feature of a safety return spring which automatically closes down the furnace in the event of the power being off. See you at Georgetown Fall Fair.
