HEALTH UNIT DENTIST RESIGNS U of T WILL CARRY ON WORK

Dr. George E. Clarke, public health dentist in Halton for a year, has resigned his position to go into private practice in Ottawa, specializing in the care of children. It has not been possible to replace him with a full-time man.

The faculty of dentistry at the University of Toronto will cooperate in furthering the work begun by Dr. B. J. O'Meara and continued last year by Dr. Clarke in the child health centres. Dr. Glenn T. Mitton, associate professor of dental public health will supervise the child health centre program. Seven centres in the county will be covered each month.

By this means services of dental health education to children and parents will be continued in the county. In addition, three dental students will attend each conference, where they will have an opportunity to see an educational program in public health dentistry in actual operation.

The program, underway in Halton for two years, has been made possible by means of a National Health Dept. Grant. The dentist in charge has confined himself to that of education and survey. Originally his efforts were with the school age group, but last year much time was spent on infants and pre-school children through the various child health centres.

In child health centres, the dentist has interviewed mothers, answered their questions about tooth development and mouth habits and advised them about nutrition and oral hygiene.

Many county school boards have cooperated in the plan by providing free dental treatment for public school children. In Georgetown this year, this free treatment has been limited, because of financial considerations, to pupils in the kindergarten and Grade 1 classes only. In Esqueving, the board of School Area No. 1, which administers several township schools will continue to pay for dental care for all students. Other township schools, which still function under separate school boards, have not adopted the plan.

Polio Hits Children Father Flies From Korea

Misfortune which struck the family of a former Georgetown girl has eased.

Sgt. Ralph Essex of St. David's near Hamilton, was called home on compassionate leave from the Korea war theatre to visit his four children ill with polio.

The sergeant, who reached Hamilton 72 hours after leaving his unit in Korea, learned on arrival that one of his youngsters was almost ready to leave hospital and two others were making rapid recovery. Only one child was still so ill that any anxiety was felt for her recovery.

The four children, Marilyn, 11, Anne, 10, Jane, 8 and David, 3, had been in hospital for several weeks.

When the four children were moved to the polio isolation ward in Hamilton, arrangements were made to give the father compassionate leave from the Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry in Korea. He took off by plane from Seoul late Saturday and arrived in Hamilton on September 18. His wife, the former Mary Edith Pettit, is well known in Georgetown where she attended school while living here. She is the daughter of the late Morley Pettit who at one time lived in the Maple Avenue house now owned by Joe Prucyk.

ject "Places, People and Poetry" after which Miss Lewis showed her pictures taken while visiting Denmark and Norway.

The Wednesday morning session was the Girls Session and after being opened by Mrs. White, Miss Durnin, County Home Economist took charge of the session. Miss Margaret Donaldson, Atwood, Junior Representative, told us there are 18 Junior Institutes in the Guelph Area. Demonstrations included: "Clothes Closets Up to Date", "The Club Girls Bedroom", and "Setting the Farm Table" with our Halton group represented by Ruth Brown of Limehouse on "The Wool Skirt and its accessories". These demonstrations showed much effort and work on the part of both leaders and girls and also the value of our Junior programme in our branches.

Mr. J. D. Parke of the Canadian Mental Health Association spoke to us and gave us a lot of worthwhile information, especially stating that we should never shun the mention of mental illness any more than a physical illness as they are both diseases and need proper diagnosis and treatment in either case.

Officers elected for 1951-52 were: Hon. president, Mrs. J. R. White, Ripley; President, Mrs. Ford Suddon, R. R. 4, Galt; 1st vice presdent, Mrs. Alex Hammond, Moorefield; 2nd Vice President, Mrs. D. Carroll, Gadd's Hill; Secretary-Treasurer, Mrs. D. S. McNaughton, R. R. 1, Bluevale; Convention Secretary, Mrs. E. V. Thompson, R. It's not what we have,

But what we give;
It's not what we are,
But how we live,
It's not what we do,
But how we do it,
That makes this world
Worth going through with it.

Nature has endowed the Canada Goose with keen vision, sharp hearing, and a speed of flight often reaching sixty miles an hour. Each spring and fall, large V-formations of these graceful water-fowl are seen in migratory flight, their weird "honking" call a familiar sound on the Canadian air.

Seagram TELLS THE WORLD ABOUT Canada.

This advertisement was designed by The House of Seagram to tell the people of other lands about Canada and things exclusively Canadian.

Many people in Latin America, Asia, Europe and other parts of the world are not fully aware of the richness of Canada's natural resources, wild life, scenic beauty and cultural traditions. The more the peoples of other lands know about our country, the greater will be their interest in Canada and Canadian products.

The House of Seagram feels that the horizon of industry does not terminate at the boundary of its plants; it has a broader horizon, a farther view—a view dedicated to the development of Canada's stature in every land of the globe.
