LIMEHOUSE

School Garden Display Monday in the Hall

The W.I.-sponsored annual School Gardens Display was held in Limehouse Memorial Hall on Monday evening. Several comments were heard that compared vegetables favorably with those at town fairs. Parents of exhibitors and other interested folk attended a social evening when Mr. E. Batkin showed films of interest loaned by the O.A.C. Mr. Norman Bird gave the children helpful advice on preparing their exhibits beginning with good seed for planting. Rev. A. Calder sang two numbers accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Roughley. Mrs. E. Sanford, president of the W.I. was chairman. The committee — Mrs. Gisby, Mrs. Barber, Miss Ruddell and Mrs. Sanford served lunch, afterwards.

Cash prizes were presented to the children following judging by Mr. Bruce Pargeter of Acton, who also judged the garden plots on two occasions during the summer. Seeds and plants were provided by the W.I.
