HONOUR CRESTS GIVEN AT MONDAY ASSEMBLY

by Staff and Al

The hallowed halls of old GHS have once more opened their revered portals to usher in the smiling faces of students as they joyfully return to fill their minds with the wisdom of the ages.

We would like to thank Mr. Biehn for letting us clutter up his paper with the GHS gossip column. (It's a pleasure boys... Ed.). Our column this week is just about full of announcements.

The first important item on the agenda is the school's own field day which will be held on Monday, October 1st with field events at the school and track events at the park.

The school has been requested to send a platoon of cadets to Exhibition Park, Toronto, on October 6th to be part of the guard of honour for Princess Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh. Three students, George McClure, Jim Buck and Paul Barber will be part of the Lorne Scots group which will also be in the guard of honour.

A group of students were presented with honour crests at assembly Monday morning. Mr. Biehn, who is a school board member, made the presentations to Julia DeVries, Eileen Prust, Joan Dobbie, Robert Lucas, Bob McGill, Neretta Zillo, John Doherty, Betty Ann Kerr, Sylvia Lambert, Bill Whitney, Marlene Rau, Louise Tucker, Bob Freestone, Patsy Carney, Leona Corin, Beverley Hyde, Irene Nelle, June Thompson, Shirley Forbes, George McClure, Eleanor Schenk, Alan Darby, Lorraine Hayes, Eileen Oates, Ron Ritchie, Gail Wheeler, Paul Prust, Nancy White, Gretchen Bradley, Kathleen Cascadden, Gleanna Doherty, Dorothy Williams. Presentation of cadet awards was postponed until a later date. Honour crests are presented for representing GHS in some way. Why the writers of this column got them, we'll never know.

As a final note, we might add that anyone who believes in democracy should investigate the appointment of the writers of the column.

Well, Miss Piercey is starting to yell, so guess we had better finish up for this week.

News of your visits and visitors is always appreciated for our Social column.
