NORVAL
Jeanne Doane Weds Goes to California
The marriage of Jeanne Elmira Esther, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Doane, Norval, to Mr. John Francis Bulman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis T. Bulman, Dedham, Mass., took place in Brampton, with Rev. C. W. Sullivan officiating.
Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a long gown of frosted white Swiss bengaline, made on period lines, with high collar, long tight sleeves and full skirt. Her lace and tulle veil had been worn by her mother at her own wedding, and she carried a colonial bouquet of red roses and stephanotis. Miss Josephine Cooper, her only attendant, chose a strapless dress of pale pink net over peach taffeta, with matching stole, net cape and carried white chrysanthemums and blue delphiniums. Mr. Richard Bulman was best man for his brother.
A reception followed at "Utikinton Farm," home of the bride's parents. The couple will live in San Francisco, California.

GLEN WILLIAMS
SATURDAY NEWLYWEDS HERE WILL LIVE IN WOODBRIDGE
Pink and white gladioli and white baby mums decorated St. Alban's Church of England, Glen Williams, for the wedding on Saturday, October 6th, of Shirley Joan Preston, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Preston and Orville Bruce Usher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Usher of Woodbridge.
Archdeacon W. G. O. Thompson officiated at the double ring ceremony and Mrs. Reg Williams was organist. Miss Marion Hepburn sang "The Voice that Breathed O'er Eden" and "O Perfect Love" during the signing of the register.
Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gowned in ivory satin with a bodice of chantilly lace over satin and lily point sleeves of lace. A chantilly lace panel extended down the front of the full skirt which fell into a sweeping train. Her lace-trimmed fingertip veil, was held in place by a Juliet cap of lace over, satin and seed pearls. She carried a crescent bouquet of red roses and white poms.
Mrs. Gilbert Preston was matron of honour for her sister-in-law and Miss Shirley Harrison, Georgetown, was bridesmaid. Both were gowned alike in coral velvet with lace caps and mittens and matching Juliet caps. Both carried crescent bouquets of yellow poms. Marilyn Usher, niece of the groom, was flower girl wearing ivory satin and carrying a basket of red rosebuds and white poms.
Mr. Alan Boyce, Woodbridge, was groomsmen and ushers were Roy Usher, brother of the groom and Gilbert Preston, brother of the bride.
At the reception in the parish hall, the bride's mother received in a cinnamon crepe dress trimmed with dark brown satin, brown accessories and a corsage of yellow roses. The groom's mother wore a wine crepe dress with wine accessories and a corsage of white poms.
For a honeymoon trip to Ottawa and the east, the bride chose a deep mauve dress with navy accessories, a grey coat and orchid corsage. They will reside in Woodbridge. The groom is employed with Ellins Brothers Construction Company in Weston and the bride is a member of the Toronto office staff of Smith & Stone, Ltd.
Friends and relatives attended the wedding from Toronto, Maple, Weston, Nobleton, Woodbridge, Acton, Chatham, Oakville, Brampton, Terra Cotta, Georgetown and Glen Williams.

BAPTISM SERVICE IN ST. JOHN'S CHURCH
The theme of the morning message at St. John's on Sunday was "Let Us Break Bread Together" and was a meditation in preparation for the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper which concluded the service. The anthem "How Manifold Are Thy Blessings" was sung by the choir and the solo "Thanks Be To God" was sung by Mrs. G. Kidney.
The Sacrament of Infant Baptism was observed at a special service held on Sunday afternoon when the following children were baptized: Elaine Kathleen King and Linda Anne King, children of Mr. and Mrs. Frank King Dennis Gordon Wright and Patricia Anne Wright, children of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Wright; John Wesley Andrews, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Andrews; Richard Wayne Armstrong, and Gary Blair Armstrong, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Blair Armstrong.
The evening meditation was the second in a series of studies based on the prophecy of Amos and was based on the theme "Firebrands from the Burning."
It was announced that the Junior Choir would attend Prospect, Park United Church, Toronto, next Sunday where they are to provide the music for the morning service and for the afternoon meeting of the Adult Bible Class.

Trousseau Tea, Shows Honour Shirley Preston
A trousseau tea was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Preston in honour of their daughter Shirley, whose marriage to Orville Usher took place Saturday. Those who assisted with the tea were Mrs. J. Fry, Sr., Mrs. Thomas Haines, Mrs. J. Harrison, Georgetown, Mrs. J. H. Price, Acton and Mrs. Jack Lucas. On Friday, September 22nd, neighbours attended a pantry shower at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Usher in Woodbridge. A miscellaneous shower was presented by Miss Shirley Harrison and Mrs. Gilbert Preston at the bride's home on September 27th and the following evening the Usher euchre club had a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Usher at Woodbridge. On October 2nd, the Smith & Stone office girls showered Miss Preston at the home of Mrs. Ted Arnold. On October 3rd, another miscellaneous shower was held at the home of Mrs. Jack Lucas, with Mrs. Thomas Haines and Mrs. Robert McMaster as assistant hostesses.
