The Editor's Corner

RUMOURS, SOME GOOD, SOME BAD

A phone call to the head office of DeHavilland Aircraft in Toronto confirmed the fact this week that the company contemplates no manufacturing in town.

It is true that DeHavilland has leased considerable space in the old paper mill from William B. Ackerman Ltd. It will be used as storage space only, with a dozen or so employees and will be no big addition to the business life of town. Optimistic stories had been spreading for several weeks about what the company planned to do here. Too bad that some of them couldn't be true.

There are rumours abroad about a possible new industry taking over the old Glen woollen mill, but to date it has been impossible for the Herald to learn anything at all about it. Let's hope that something materializes, for it is a pity to see this huge building idle for several years and the resulting decay which always occurs when a building is empty.

There is some prospect that a company known as H.M.S. Associates which is at present developing a new hot water tank in the Kippen-Ker factory on John St. may eventually employ some quantity of labour, though at the present time the work is still in the experimental stage. Plans are being discussed by Provincial Paper for an addition to the plant, but no definite decision has yet been made.

LIBRARY BOARD HAS PROBLEMS

Thanks are due J. L. Lambert, the new chairman of the library board for a new Herald feature. Mr. Lambert in this issue gives some thumbnail sketches of new books received at the library and has promised to keep us informed as new books are received. Perhaps it will encourage more use of this free facility which is important to people in these days of inflated costs of living.

At the last council meeting a delegation from the library board told about the difficulties under which they work and invited council to look over the building and see what repairs are needed. There is some question whether it is worth spending a considerable sum of money on a building which is much too large and requires too much upkeep for the purpose for which it is used. It is a fact that the present building cannot be used indefinitely unless money is spent. It will require some thinking and planning, both by the board and the council, to do what is best and most economical in the long run.

Whatever the case, it will be necessary for money to be spent, either on this or on some other building, if a public library is to be maintained.

POT POURRI

We thought all news leads had been checked last week in our story of the Royal Visit. After reporting that no local people were presented to Princess Elizabeth we find that Brigadier and Mrs. J. P. Girvan attended the 48th Highlanders reception in University Armouries and were among those presented to the Princess and the Duke of Edinburgh. Not only did ex-OPP constable Vic Smith make the front page of the daily papers, but he also appeared in the movies. Vic was one of two mounties who stood guard during the presentation of Queen Mary's carpet to the National Galleries. Some local people saw him in a news reel at a city theatre. Nice to see Ted MacCormack back on the job again in his drug store after an illness that has kept him away since early summer. We thought of Mr. MacCormack when listening to a radio show Sunday. Readers may remember a news item some time ago telling of a letter which he had received from Mexico, promising a large sum of money if he would help a prisoner in Mexico recover funds which were stored in the States. The Gangbusters radio program dramatized a true story in which a similar group of confidence men were trapped by the FBI. Apparently it is necessary to get them into the States before they can be brought to justice and the story told of the ruse used by an FBI agent to get the con men across the border where action could be taken. Don Ford is the new junior at the Royal Bank, replacing Danny Hewitt who left the bank to work at the paper mill. Attending Brampton Business School this term are two Georgetown girls, Marie Armstrong, who went to Loretta Abbey in Toronto last year, and Betty Lou Davis.

Four Groups Combine to Sponsor Hallowe'en Party

The usual community Hallowe'en party is being planned this year for the children in Georgetown. The Lions Club, Board of Parks, Legion and Ministerial Association are all lending their efforts to the party. In past years different groups have met in various centralized and all children will be entertained at the arena. A big parade will form on Mill Street in front of the Legion Hall at 7 o'clock and march to the arena where games and prizes will take place. For prizes, the children will be divided into three age groups. A clown band will lead the parade and apples, kisses and peanuts will be given to the children.

Legion Notes

DON'T FORGET THE regular meeting on Thursday night. All members are urged to attend. The meeting will only be an hour, Comrades, so how about turning out?

POPPY DAY is Saturday, November 10th. Keep this day in mind and volunteer your services if possible. In this connection we would like to mention that the money raised by this method, has absolutely nothing to do with the Branch funds, (although the Branch contributes to it) but is used to relieve ANY ex-serviceman who is needy. Mrs. T. F. Grieve is in charge of this good work.

THIS YEAR THE Remembrance Day Supper will be held Friday evening, November 9th, in the auditorium. Com. Charlie Day is again handling the tickets and will doubtless be seeing the members about them in the near future. The W.A. have consented to put on a turkey dinner this year, so everyone had better be on hand!

CARD PARTIES started Monday night under the chairmanship of the Sports Committee. These card parties were a real success last year and we hope that this fall will see continued good attendance.

AT THE LAST executive meeting it was decided to send along a donation to the Provincial Command Scholarship Fund. This is a worthy cause and we can supply some of the details of it. In the past few years Provincial Command has established each year a number of scholarships to help those children who would like to go to university, but whose circumstances are such that their parents cannot afford to send them. A student does not have to be brilliant to get one, all that is required is that an applicant be a normal student, whose marks are such that they warrant their attendance at an Ontario university. This seems a very worthwhile cause and a donation there cannot be considered lost money. Who knows, perhaps some day a GHS student will take advantage of this project.

REMEMBRANCE DAY will be on Sunday, November 11th and it is hoped this year, that all vets will join in with the Branch in paying their respects to those who made the supreme sacrifice in two great wars. All the details will be available next week. So keep the date in mind, Comrades, and let's see the biggest parade yet!

WE MIGHT say that we made a slight typographical error in printing our monthly bulletin this last time and had "Poppy Day, Saturday, November 11th" instead of the 10th. We think we changed most of them, but there were a number of the notices went out with the wrong date. Sorry!

AND JUST AS A last thought, how about all those who managed to make last month's regular meeting for the first time in years, try to make it again, Thursday night! The meeting will be short, with refreshments afterwards.

THIS MEETING will in all probabilities see a report on the hockey situation by Comrade Alf Sykes. He seems to have the ball nicely rolling and we expect some real hockey from the boys. Would like to thank Marsh Timbers for the report of the meeting he left at the office for us, and which appears in another section of the Herald.

THE NUMBER of boys registering for the hockey season has not been as large as expected, but no doubt many will still wish to register. From now on, registrations will be handled at Marsh Timber's office, in the Norton Bldg. on Main Street.

The Friendship Club has completed renovations to the Sunday School room which included a new floor and refinished walls. The work was done by Haines Brothers with the club footing the bill.
