Students Try Hand At Political Campaign

A very novel and interesting campaign has just ended at the school, in the form of an election to form a student council. Results at the nomination meeting were as follows: Candidates for president — Wayne Pries, Thomas Dobbie, Thomas Palmer, Claire Bradley. Candidates for vice president — Barry Jeffrey, Clifton Boutelle, Betsy Willson, Robert Kidd. Candidates for Secretary — Terence Harley, Gall King, Janice Bradley. Candidates for Treasurer: Marna Mackenzie, Gillian Chapman, Dennis Bell, Donald Puckering. Presidential speeches were given in the various senior rooms on Friday morning after religious instruction. Voting took place in two polling divisions designated in the lower corridor of the building yesterday.

Parents Night will be observed one evening during the first week of December — the specific date to be decided later. Mr. L. L. Skuce IPS and his assistant Mr. Nelson of Brampton are at present inspecting the various classrooms.

NORVAL

GEORGE GOLLOP MARKS HIS 91st BIRTHDAY

Not often are two members of a family blessed with the years which Mr. George Gollop of Norval and his elder sister, Mrs. I. Webster have enjoyed. Both are in good health and Mr. Gollop celebrated his 91st birthday a few weeks ago on November 5th. His son, George, Jr., was able to be home from Montreal for the day. Mrs. Webster marks her birthday soon, also.

NORVAL FAMILY GOES TO STREETSVILLE

On Thursday evening about seventy five friends and neighbours of Mr. John Humphrey, Mrs. Lois Humphrey, John and Linda, gathered in Pinegrove School house. A short programme was held with Mr. Chester Early acting as chairman. Two chicks were presented on behalf of those present by Mr. George Woods and Mr. Earl Hyatt. Mr. Humphrey, who has lived his life in School Section No. 4, and who has sold his farm to Mr. Gordon Laidlaw, and bought a home in Streetsville, replied with sincerity and appreciation. Amongst those expressing regrets at their departure from the neighbourhood were Mr. George Currie, Mr. Howard May, and Mr. Norman Cameron. Fifteen tables of players enjoyed progressive euchre, and refreshments were served by the ladies of the section.
