RAIDERS WIN FIRST GAME HESPELER HANGS UP SKATES

Georgetown has won a hockey game. Sparked by Del and Junior Beaumont, who tallied five goals between them, Dang Kentner's boys came through with their first win of the season last Friday here against Hespeler. The boys from up-country had taken the Raiders' measure in two previous matches. The win ended a string of six defeats for the luckless Raiders, who have been hampered this year with some missing faces. With Del Beaumont and Harvey Chappel back in the lineup, the Raiders are showing some of the old strength. Wouldn't it be nice to see Nickie Ferri back in there too!

As for the game, aside from the win, it was mainly notable for an absence of spectators. Understandable this time, for with four Sunday School Christmas concerts in town and a few in the country, plus an important Masonic Lodge meeting, most everyone was busy elsewhere that night.

Final score was 9-4. Maxie Bradbury, Bill Hewitt, Ken Nash and Jack Kemshead accounted for the other four goals.

Wilf Hillis reports to us that a phone call yesterday from a Hespeler official relayed the news that Hespeler is dropping out of league competition.

The reason? No fans... no money. This in spite of a win against Walkerton Monday night in Hespeler when heads were counted and some seventy-odd spectators were present. The new Hespeler club has no financial backing behind them and apparently finds it impossible to keep on forever in the red. Not saying it will but it could happen here, so get out to those games.

In case you've misplaced your schedule, remember future games are announced every week in the advertising columns. Walkerton plays here Friday and the first Saturday in January. It is Elmira here.

A protest by Walkerton about the eligibility of three Elmira players was aired recently before the OHA and Elmira was given the option of dropping the three disputed players, all of whom come from Kitchener, or being elevated to Senior B, a la Bridgeport.

They chose to remain in competition with Georgetown and Walkerton. Games won to date, however, are forfeited to the opposing team, so Georgetown picks up two wins in this manoeuvre. Meanwhile Elmira hit right back with a protest against Walkerton, who in turn had to drop two players. If their games are forfeited too it would add another win for the Raiders and make it 4 out of 6. Apparently there is more than one way of winning hockey games and the Raiders are near the top of the heap in spite of the scores.

Elmira isn't weakened too badly, however, for they took advantage of the OHA ruling which forces senior teams to cut their squad from 25 to 18 by December 15. Elmira, we hear, has grabbed up two of these released seniors so they are still a team to reckon with.

120 CLUB JUVENILES DEFEAT WOODBRIDGE

In their opening game of the season the Georgetown juvenile entry in the OMHA, defeated Woodbridge by a score of 10 to 3. This team is being sponsored by the local Legion Branch and coached by Scotty Patterson. Manager is Alf Sykes, assisted by Marsh Timbers, who are also taking care of the other "kid" hockey teams in town.

Extremely disappointing was the absence of anyone at the arena to see the lads play. Only a handful of people were present, evidenced by the total gate receipts of $3.70. However, the management has hopes that in the future public response will be better. So how about it, sport fans?
