350 Attend St. John's Sunday School Concert

St. John's Sunday School Christmas party and concert again proved its drawing power, as close to 350 persons of all ages taxed the seating capacity of St. John's Memorial Hall in spite of the severe snow storm of Friday, December 14th.

The program opened with carol singing by the audience and opening remarks by the chairman, Ernest Forgrave, announcing the first number of recitations and songs by the Nursery Class (under 3 years.) The beginners class, (under 6 yrs.) entertained next with songs and recitations. The program continued class by class of the entire 11 classes entertaining with dialogues, recitations, songs and also plays, even to a full scale minstrel show complete with trimmings. The splendid performance of some of the actors was overshadowed at times by their delightful costumes.

At the close of the program the entire audience and Sunday School combined to sing "Jingle Bells" to welcome Santa Claus who made a special visit to greet each person present and to present each child with a bag of candy, nuts and oranges.

Space does not permit quoting the names of the entire cast which was close to 100. The staff of the Sunday School includes the following:

Nursery Class under 3 years — Mrs. Chester Deforest; Beginners, 3 to 5, Mrs. Harvey Chappel, Miss Shirley Dobbie; Primary, 5 to 8, Mrs. M. Armann, Miss Joan Dobbie; Boys 6 to 8, Jack Runham; Girls 6 to 8, Frances Deans; Boys 9 to 11, Cecil McNamara; Girls 9 to 11, Mrs. Ernest Forgrave; Boys over 11, Graham Farnell; Girls 11 to 13, Isabel Dobson; Girls over 13, Mrs. Ruth Wrigglesworth; Adult, Alan Prouse.
Secretary — Mary Dobson.
Treasurer — Betty King.
Paper Stewards — Jim Buck, Wayne Gribbons.
Convener of Supplies and Equipment — Vern McCumber.
Superintendent — Ernest Forgrave.
The entire staff is under the counsel of Rev. John M. Smith.

One of man's oldest crafts is the making of leather and it came to Canada with Champlain and Maisonneuve more than three centuries ago. Basically the craft hasn't changed much through the years.
