BOWLING

LORNE SCOTS BAND CLAIMS TOP SPOT

Section A
With a few of the bowlers it was a good night but for the rest of them it was just one of those nights when the ball just couldn't be told where to go. Topping the list of good bowlers was E. Peters with 750 (232, 301, 217); supporting him were D. Stamp 722 (186, 288, 248); B. Hall 687 (225, 213, 249); B. Anderson 681 (224, 235, 222); H. Chapel 671 (201, 231, 239). The list of singles is very small for Section A this week with H. Dickie leading it with a 311 score. Running second and third were J. Lorusso 270, and R. Norton 246. Leading the cellar race was J. Brandford 170, 131, 202, (503). With the team scoring it was just a straight down-hill race; Silver's 3340; Maple Leaf Dairy 3004; McClure's 2933; and McCormack's 2859.

The team standing took a minor change. McCormack's who were in second dropped back to 3rd place and McClure's from 3rd place moved to second. Silver's proved too much for Maple Leaf Dairy and netted themselves 7 points. McCormack's were taken for a ride of 7-0 by the powerful team of McClure's. Of the sixty scores rolled for the night there was only 32 of them, over 200.

The team scoring is now Silver's 47, McClure's 40, McCormack's 36, Maple Leaf Dairy 31.

Section B
Provincials proved to be the powerful team of Section B by rolling high team score of 805, 1008, 949 for a triple of 2762, and also relieved Legion No. 1 of 5 points. In the battle between Misfits and the Lawn Bowlers they just managed to show themselves as top team by beating them 4 to 3.

The team standing remained unchanged for section B, but it is now getting to a spot where any team losing seven points will make a drastic change. Misfits are still out front with 44 points. Provincial Paper 41, Legion No. 1, 35, Lawn Bowlers have 34.

Rolling high triple for the night was A. Campbell 636 (190, 205, 241); 2nd L. Tracey 613 (157, 232, 224); 3rd C. Day 601 (207, 228, 166). Leading the singles class was H. Brandford with 292. Following him were D. Herrington 235; J. Yates 230; L. scorer for section B was H. Reid 477 (139-148-190).

Section C
Well! Well! Everybody is having a chance to claim top spot. The Imperials went down to the overwhelming count of 5 to 2 by the Lorne Scots Band. This moved the Imperials from top place down to second and the Lorne Scots from 2nd up to 1st. It was also a 5-2 count between Kay's and Legion No. 2. Kay's Store received the 5 points. The team standing is now Lorne Scots Band 43, Imperials 42, Legion No. 2, 36 and Kay's Store 33.

Outstanding bowler for Section C was J. Saunders rolling 734 (171, 226, 337); following him with some good scores were J. Hiddlestone 682 (307, 195, 180); J. Cuthbert 679 (212, 236, 231); B. Korzack 637 (204, 229, 204). Rolling some good singles were A. Norrie 243; G. Brandford, 235; J. Ingles 218. Low man for section C was K. Huffman 107. Team single was rolled by the Imperials 1068. Team triple score was rolled by Lorne Scots Band 1016, 931, 846; 2793.

—Ace Bailey.

FATHER DIES IN PEEL HOSPITAL

The funeral was held yesterday for Charles Robert Upshall, who died in Peel Memorial Hospital on Saturday.

Mr. Upshall, who was in his 75th year, was the father of Mrs. Delmar Maltby of Silvercreek. He is survived by his wife, Jessie Maw, and four children, Margaret, Mrs. Delmar Maltby, Silvercreek, Oliver and Russell of Brampton and Cecil of Acton. Following the service at the McKillop Funeral Home, interment was made in Brampton Cemetery.

EFFECTIVE XMAS LIGHTING ON GEORGETOWN MAIN STREET

Georgetown merchants have combined to make Main Street attractive for Christmas. On each hydro standard, a small Christmas tree with coloured lights has been placed which complements the large Lions tree on the bank corner.
