Trounce Woodbridge in Second Juvenile Match

Proving their superiority to Woodbridge, Georgetown 120 Club, sponsored by the local Legion Branch, won their second juvenile hockey game last Friday in Woodbridge.

The team, managed by Alf Sykes and Marsh Timbers and coached by Scotty Patterson defeated Woodbridge here 10-3 and in Woodbridge they won 12-1! The high scoring forward line of Bud Haines, Blake Inglis and Carl Schenk accounted for a good share of the goals, and George Webster was also prominent, getting two goals and an assist. Playing for Georgetown were Haines, Inglis, Schenk, Webster, Danny Hewitt, Brock Bradley, Paul Barber, Don Jarvie, Tom Palmer, George Grasby, Fred Dickenson, George McClure, David Cooper, Bud Varey, Dale Sedore and Carman Maltby.

WE GRATEFULLY THANK YOU FOR EVERY KINDNESS DURING THE PAST YEAR AND CONVEY EVERY GOOD WISH FOR 1952.
