THE WEEKEND TELY

Happy New Year Everyone. During the holiday season when the home is garlanded with coloured electric lights on wreaths, mantels and the Christmas tree, informal entertaining seems to fit any occasion. Buffet meals can be most successful when planned informally. Buffet parties are easy to plan and they are probably the favourite of the men.

The buffet table should have continuity in arrangement so that the guests may wait on themselves as they move along the side of the table. If the room is small, push the table against one wall and place your flowers and candles against the wall rather than in the centre. Decorations will then provide an attractive background for your serving dishes. Stack plates in one or two piles at the end of the table and the silver in parallel or V. lines on either side of the plates. Next to these place the napkins folded in a relatively small shape. The dishes of food are arranged according to their shape and colour. However, the bowls of sauce mixtures should be placed at the edge of the table for ease in serving. Many hostesses feel it lends a gracious touch to ask a friend to preside over the main dishes. In any event she will do well to designate a hostess to pour tea or coffee or serve punch from a side table.

All of this brings us to the most important point of the food itself.

- STEWARTTOWN
- BILL DEVRIES GETS "BEST PUPIL" AWARD
- Stewarttown School held their annual Christmas concert Wednesday evening in the Community Hall under the leadership of their teacher, Miss J. Frank. Ruby Tennant played the national anthem for the opening. The hall was decorated with murals made by the pupils. The carols, songs and plays were well-rendered and did them great credit. Mrs. Robert Harris, president of the Women's Institute presented an initialled wallet to Bill De Vries, as being the pupil who had made the best progress in the year. Santa Claus came and passed to the children the gifts from a tree well-laden with parcels. Also an orange and candies to all the young people there.
- Happy birthday to Larry Picket who will be 5 years old on Friday the 28th.
- St. John's Guild held a Christmas party last week at Mrs. John Murray's. It was a turkey dinner with all the trimmings. Being such a stormy night some of the members were not able to get there. Those that did get thru had a good time. Christmas gifts were exchanged.
- Happy birthday wishes to Sandra Lloyd, who will have her ninth birthday next Sunday the 30th of December.
- Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Baily, Dawn and Stephen and Mrs. Marshall of Islington were visitors with Mrs. Mary Baily on Sunday.
- The annual carol service of the Sunday School was held at the church Sunday afternoon. Mr. L. H. Greenwood was in charge and Miss Evalonne Smith played for the carols. Each child received a gift and a card.

Shirtmakers say the preference of Canadian men for shirts with generous shoulder room reflects the fact that this is a vigorous young country of hard-working people.
