World Traveller, Artist Local Woman's Sister

The funeral service was held in Toronto today for Miss Helen Florence Taylor, a sister of Mrs. Frank Pollock of town, who died in Toronto on Sunday.

She was a lifelong resident of the city and was a daughter of the late John Taylor. The family home on Jarvis Street was recently torn down to make way for the new Ned Cross headquarters.

As a young woman Miss Taylor had travelled all over the world. Interested in art, she studied in Brussels and became skilled in the craft of leather tooling. She was an early member of the Toronto Women's Art Club and belonged to St. Paul's Church of England.

She leaves two sisters, Mrs. Charles P. Catto, Toronto, and Mrs. Pollock in town, and a brother, A. P. Taylor, Toronto.

MACKENZIE NEWS

How about spending that Christmas bonus on your home and having year-around enjoyment.

A good investment could be a Step-Saver automatic draft control for your furnace, storm sash, a new combination door, more insulation or a new kitchen cupboard. Just ask your wife for a few suggestions on what is needed around the house.

See you at the Hockey game.

ASHGROVE SUPPER-AND-CONCERT FOR SUNDAY SCHOOL

A very happy evening was held in the church on Thursday, December 27th when eighty persons sat down to supper. The tables were prettily decorated in Christmas and orange little trees and coloured paper. After everyone had done justice to the bountiful meal the superintendent of the Sunday School, Mr. Robert Cunningham, spoke a few words and called on Rev. Ainsworth who acted as chairman for the special programme of piano solos, recitations and songs put on by the children, followed by Mrs. Frank Wilson and Mrs. J. H. Hunter, who presented the prizes to the scholars of the Sunday School for perfect attendance last year. The Banner class was awarded to Mrs. Leslie O'Hara. The evening ended with the distributing of gifts to the children and the teachers from the prettily decorated tree.

A very Prosperous New Year wishing all of you, with peace and joy and happiness through 1952.
