LIMEHOUSE —
Euchre Party Sponsored
By Limehouse Institute

The W.I. sponsored a euchre in Limehouse Memorial Hall on Friday evening, with high prizes going to Mrs. Shirley Andrews in a draw over Mrs. Ron Latimer and to Mr. Harvey Young. Low prizes went to Mrs. Wm. Norton in a draw over Mrs. Elfrida and Mrs. Lewis and Mr. Ken McDonald. Lunch was served by the committee in charge.

The lovely bouquet at Sunday's communion services at Limehouse Presbyterian Church were placed there by Charles Jones in memory of his uncle, the late Wm. Hogg, who was buried at Thistleton on Saturday.

Cadet officer Hobbs Bourne was home from RMC, Kingston, last week-end.

Members of the W.I. catering committee served turkey dinners to some sixty members and friends of the Esqueuing Fair Board in the Township hall on Tuesday evening. Mrs. John Carlisle of Beaverton was a visitor with the Pattersons last week.

PUBLIC SCHOOL NEWS

Faulty Chimney Causes Slight Class Disruption

On Friday morning escaping gas fumes and smoke caused by a faulty chimney made it necessary for a few classes to dismiss early at lunch time. It was given immediate attention and loss of school time was practically nil.

Films will be shown once in every three-week period. The classes are grouped as Juniors, Intermediate and Seniors. Previews are shown to the teachers and lessons related to the use of the films will be the forerunners of the actual visual aids. This week senior grades are seeing the following filmstrips: North to Hudson Bay; Historic Highway; Seasonal Changes in Trees; and Royal Tour in South Africa.

We are sorry to report the following illnesses in connection with the staff and student body: Mrs. Joseph Dwyer is at present in Guelph General Hospital, where she underwent an operation on Monday. The Kindergarten-Primary is being conducted in her absence by Mrs. Harold Henry and Miss Rowena Stull.

Miss Laura Scott is suffering with a heavy cold and Miss Hazel Harrison is in charge of her class for a few days.

Agnes Nelson of Grade 6 is in Guelph General Hospital where she underwent an appendectomy on Tuesday morning.

There are also several cases of chicken pox reported amongst the juniors.

The Student Council is busily engaged with plans for a regular school paper. Anyone asked to help in this enterprise is urged to give of their best service.

An exciting hockey match between Grade 8 GPS boys and Grade 9 GHS boys was held on Tuesday after 4 p.m. in the local arena. Result was 4-3 in favour of the high school lads. Obtaining the goals for the Public School were Thomas Palmer, Calvin King and George Gibbs.

Some novel winter bouquets are the basis for an exciting science contest conducted by Mr. H. Henry in the senior grades. These include hollowed carrots, watered, to produce greenery; cobs of corn with grass seed planted betwixt kernels which develop into a semblance of a Christmas tree, etc. Many varieties of bird feeders have also been well made by members of the science classes.

BALLINAFAD

MONEY AND GIFTS FOR FIRE VICTIMS

A large gathering was held in the hall Thursday evening when a presentation was made to Mr. and Mrs. Arnold McEnery who recently lost their home and contents by fire. Mr. Bert Davidson was chairman for the presentation and a well filled purse along with many gifts of clothing and bedding were given to Mr. and Mrs. McEnery. David and also to Tom Aldwell who has been employed on their farm. Dancing was enjoyed for the remainder of the evening.

The annual meeting of the congregation was held Friday night in the church. The minister, Mr. William Gibb presided at the meeting and read the report of the season. The minutes of the last annual meeting were read by the secretary, Mr. R. Warne. The treasurer's report read by J. P. Kirkwood showed the finances to be in good state with considerable balance. All WMS organizations reported reaching their allocations and the W.A. showed a substantial bank balance. Mr. J. P. Kirkwood was re-elected treasurer with Mr. N. Sinclair and Mr. T. Gibson appointed auditors. Mr. F. J. Shortill and Mr. J. Kirkwood were elected elders. It was decided to change the date of the anniversary to early in September from the usual time in November. A committee has been appointed to investigate the possibility of putting a basement under the church. Mervyn and Orval Dodds were hired as caretakers. Rev. John M. Smith of Georgetown was present and spoke a few words of encouragement, stressing the need of full cooperation by the congregation and minister. He closed the meeting with the benediction.

Mr. John Cole has sold his farm to Mr. Forster of Georgetown, who will get possession in the spring. Mr. and Mrs. Cole and family will move to their new home near Blue Springs.

Mr. Ken Miller has sold his village property to a Dutch family. — Ballinafad hockey team has won all their scheduled games so far this season, playing as a league with Inglewood, Erin, Cedar Valley and North Erin. They start the second round Friday, playing Inglewood in Brilabugh.
