YEARS AGO To be dead on now owned by John C. dato a factory operated in the name Creekman Bros. and Jan. we had always under o . were a andy to the knatting and mery business, we roomknow that they also manufactured what would now be considered "antique" type writers Walt Cook, of MacCo: mack's Drug Store brought us in a clipping from the Milday Gaz ette, which told us of a minister in Mildmay discovering an ancient typewriter in the storeroom at the rectory, with a patent date of 1892 It was made by Creelman Bros and was tradesnamed "Blickensderfer

The construction of the machine was most interesting About the size of present day fly-weight portables it had an oak carrying box Instead of type bars, the letters were on a small cylinder which revolved when the keys were operated to bring the proper character into contact With the paper in stead of typing through a ribbon the actual characters were inked by a small roller before they came in direct contact with the paper Walt's father, Mr Leon Cook, believes he too has one of these interesting old machines around his home, and is going to look it up If he finds it, the editor is going to display it in his office window

FLORIDA-BOUND people we have heard of include Mr and Mrs Walter Gray and Mr and Mrs James Jones of New Toronto Mrs. Jones was the former Olive MacDonald of Town. Mr. and Mrs. Jones left last Friday for Miami, where they will spend three weeks with Mr Jones' aunt Mr and Mrs. Al Norton are also planning to leave soon for a trip south ning to leave soon for a trip south, as are the Howard Kentners . . .

. . One of the joys of the southern vacation, we should imagine, is boating. But apparently one doesn't have to go south to enjoy this pastime according to Cecil Davidson and Pharos Vannatter, who were boating at Fencion Falls a week ago Sunday. Their wives were along on the trip, but we hear that boating on the cold billows didn't appeal to them as much as it did totheir "better halves"

DEER MUST be very, plentiful this year. Just a couple of weeks ago, the Herald carried a story about a deer entering a house on the eastern outskirts of town, along No. -7 Highway, and now this week we hear that Mrs Thomas Parry, whose home is at the other extremity of town, on Main Street north, saw two deer go by ber window . . .

TWO LOCAL lattles -- Mrs. J. L. Ellerby of Limehouse, and Miss Charlotte McCullough - made quite a "hit" at the Annual Convention of the Ontario Agricultural Societies, held last week at the King Edward Hotel, In Toronto, with their original skit, "Cooperation at Our Fairs." Mrs. Ellerby and Miss McCullough composed and enacted their little play. which by the way was a half-hour. production. We might add that the ladies did not get the script ready until the night before the skit was scheduled for presentation, they did it we'll never know, cause it certainly takes a

BULL SALE HAS BIG ENTRY LIST

Two hundred and eighty bulls from one hundred and thirty of the leading herds in Ontario have been entered in the 1952 Beef Bull Show and Sale, to be held in the Sheep and Swine Arena, Royal Winter Fair Buildings, Toronto, on March 11th and 12th. Of the num-, ber being offered, 142 are Shorthorns, 96 Herefords and 42, Aberdeen Angus. One of the new regulations this year is that bulls placed in the third group at the time of the showing will be sold for slaughter. This assures buyers that only bulls of high quality will be offered for sale at the time of the auction. As in former years, the Ontario Government will make a grant to all Ontario buyers. This will be equal to one-third of the purchase price up to maximum of All residents are urged to attend the public memorial service Friday in St. John's Church.
