Toronto Readers Like Elmer's Sportswriting

Dear Mr. Editor: We are interested readers from the Toronto district and weekly subscribers to the Herald. We noticed that there has been a great deal of controversy over "Elmer's" column. Several people have written in criticizing Elmer and his column. We feel, however, that he is writing a very good column and without it there would be very little information about the hockey games.

We think that it makes it more interesting if Elmer keeps himself incognito. The column attracts the attention of the reader.

If Elmer feels that criticism is due the players, and that they will benefit from it, then why should he not express his views.

Here's hoping Elmer keeps on printing the news of the games. — Interested Fans.
