Shooting Stars is Three Night Hit

One of the most successful productions to ever play in town "Shooting Stars" was presented last week by the Legion W.A. With turn-out crowds Thursday and Friday, a third show was booked in the Legion Hall Saturday night.

The show, directed by Nyla Jester of Empire Producing Company, was built around a visit to a television studio and featured impersonations of well known TV stars. The different acts were introduced by page girls. Marna Mackenzie and Claudia Milne. Besides a number of specialty acts there were choruses of singers and dancers from public and high school girls.

Featured in the large cast were William Broughton who did singing commercials; Jack Whittaker as Milton Berle; Dorothy Day as Kate Smith and husband Charlie Day as Jack Bailey; David Bowman as Fred Waring; Johnny Emmerson as Roy Acuff; Mrs. Elsie Baxter was pianist for the show. Mrs. Bruce McCartney, Mrs. George Johnson, Anna Spitzer and the Rhythmettes, contributed specialty numbers. Mrs. William Honey played Fran Allison, in "Tell-A-Story time". A show stopper was the Pretty Babies chorus of Norm McDonald, Alva Grievie, Bud James, Frank Connelly, Bruce Harley and Chuck Laws. Included in the Jubilee Singers group were Mrs. Alex Taylor, Mrs. William Honey, Mrs. Jim Blair, Mrs. Henry Shepherd, Mrs. Bert Raymond, Mrs. Alice Polts, S. T. Farrah, Tom Warner, Mrs. Ray Robson and William Broughton.

A baby popularity contest was run in conjunction with the show. Decorated jars were placed in business places and each penny dropped in a jar counted as a vote. Baby king and queen were David Harley and Suzanne Blyth. Princes and Princesses, Reggie Laws and Patsy Gribbons, Duke and Duchess, Herbie Lockhurst and Vicki Ann Greygoose. The babies received loving cups as prizes.

On Friday, the W.A. presented flowers to Mrs. Baxter and Miss Jester and gifts were also presented to Miss Jester from the girls' groups in the show. Proceeds of the show will be used by the W.A. to inaugurate a new welfare fund.

Miss Mattie Tompkins Oldest Georgetown

Georgetown's oldest person in years of residence in town, Miss Martha (Mattie) Tompkins died in Peel Memorial Hospital, Brampton on Sunday.

Miss Tompkins, who would have been 87 years old next week, was born in Georgetown and was the last member of the family of John Tompkins and Catherine Gambell. Her father came here from Toronto before her birth to be manager of the old lower paper mill. The mill, owned by Provincial Paper, Ltd. was closed down a few years ago and the building is now used as a storage warehouse by Dellavilland Aircraft Miss Tompkins herself worked in the mill for many years.

With her sister, Emily, who died last December, she had lived for many years in a house on Maple Avenue East, where the sisters took great pride in their garden and lived a quiet life. She was also predeceased by a sister, Mrs. Susan Bessey and a brother, Emerson Tompkins. She was a member of the Baptist Church.

Rev. Alfred Barker conducted the funeral service this afternoon at the McClure Funeral Home, with interment following in Greenwood Cemetery.

McNALLY'S HOME OF THE WEEK

THE ALLEN, illustration of which shows no basement, can be built with basement if you wish. The utility room shown could be used as an extra room or a larger kitchen.

Storage space is liberally allowed for in THE ALLEN. Wardrobes are provided for in each of the three bedrooms, and closets are planned for the front entrance and utility room. A general closet and linen cabinet are in the bedroom hall.

The exterior walls are shown to be of frame with wide siding. But, concrete blocks can be used as a substitute. The roof is covered with asphalt shingles.

The kitchen of THE ALLEN is modern with cabinets and equipment arranged in a U-shape. The sink is under the window and the refrigerator and range are completely built into the cabinets.

Dimensions of THE ALLEN are 38 feet by 27 feet with an area of 1000 square feet and a volume of 13,320 cubic feet.
