Stan Allen Chosen CCF Head Again

President of Halton County CCF Association for a second term is Stan Allen of Georgetown. Mr. Allen, who is a Smith and Stone employee, is a member of Georgetown Council and is president of the IBEW Union at the Smith & Stone plant.

Mr. Allen was re-elected to office at the annual meeting in the Farmers' Hall, Milton. Other officers of the association include Frank Rogister, Milton, vice president; J. McIntosh, Nelson, secretary-treasurer; Reginald Crews, Oakville, organizer. Committee members are Frank Parmer, Georgetown, William Coleman, Acton, Mrs. M. Pinney, Burlington, Archie Service, Milton, S. D. McDonald, Bronte and John Thill, Nelson Township.

John Alexander was elected as the member for the riding to attend the Provincial Council and delegates were named to attend the annual provincial convention in Toronto in mid-April. It was decided to get a federal candidate in the field as soon as possible.

Provincial organizer F. Young, in an address, pointed out that the CCF had been condemned in the past for advocating government measures of social welfare, such as family allowances and unemployment insurance, but that these measures are now taken quite for granted. He said that although the CCF has done a good job in this way, there is still hard work ahead and much to accomplish.

He reviewed the CCF stand on NATO and pointed out that while Canada had spent $19 billions in fighting the last war, while still maintaining a high standard of living in this country, the country had offered only $25 million for the economic fight against Communism through the Colombo Plan.

He said the only effective weapon against Communism is economic aid of this sort and that an emphasis on rearmament to the detriment of economic aid will increase the danger of Communist expansion instead of decreasing it.

A Dutch auction provided a good deal of amusement as well as funds for the treasury. Items for the auction were donated by members and their wives. Coffee and sandwiches were served before the meeting adjourned.

"Well, Moses, how is your better half this morning?"
"She's better, thanks, sah; but, boss, you shore is careless wif your fractions."

Mrs. Seward Wilson Heads Institute

The annual meeting of the Georgetown Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Fred Sinclair on Wednesday evening, April 2nd. Mrs. Seward Wilson was in the chair and Mrs. R. T. Paul, the treasurer, acted as secretary in the absence of Mrs. Albert Livingstone.

The roll call, "How many meetings have I attended this past year" was well answered by the regulars but the attendance might have been improved. The topic — "Don't stay away because the Institute is not perfect. How lonesome you would feel in a perfect Institute!" was well handled by Mrs. Fred Armstrong, reminiscing on various phases of life; perfection is not as desirable as you would think; often when you reach the top you feel let-down; the anticipation is more enjoyable than the realization; ending with a well-chosen poem by Edgar Guest about our feathered friends and how their happiness is attained.

Mrs. H. C. Bailey, as district director gave a splendid report of their meeting at Milton, many suggestions being tabled and many improvements suggested for the betterment of the Institute and the upholding of the motto "For Home and Country".

Report of the conveners followed, and the press secretary's report showed that the Institute had been quite active in all phases of its work during the year.

Mrs. Wm. T. Sinclair took the chair for the election of the officers which resulted as follows:

Hon. Pres. — Mrs. H. C. Bailey
President — Mrs. Seward Wilson
1st Vice — Mrs. Frank Petch
Sec.-Treas. — Miss Luena Campbell
Asst. Sec. — Mrs. Fred Sinclair
Press Sec. — Mrs. W. V. Grant
Pianist — Mrs. R. T. Paul.

The other officers and standing committees will be arranged for at the next meeting.

Mrs. Frank Petch moved a vote of thanks to the hostess and all taking part in the program. A dainty lunch was served and the Institute was invited to hold the next meeting in May at the home of the president, Mrs. Seward Wilson.

LIMEHOUSE

MRS. SANFORD AGAIN W.I. PRESIDENT

PUBLIC SCHOOL NEWS

MUSEUM, HAPPY GANG FOR CITY VISITORS

Twenty-seven members of Miss L. Campbell's class enjoyed a pre-Easter bus trip to Toronto on Wednesday, April 9th. The educational tour included a visit to the museum, where the guide gave an interesting lecture to the group on the Elizabethan era. An hour of free inspection followed when the groups subdivided and went to the parts most interesting to them. After lunch, they attended the Happy Gang programme, and came home via Malton airport. The financial aspect of the trip was taken care of by the sale of Christmas cards earlier in the term.

The senior grades saw the films Klee Wyck (Story of Emily Carr and her paintings), Birds of Canada and Bronco Busters on the closing afternoon of school.

School reopens after the Easter vacation on April 21st. Reports will go out for the spring set of examinations on May 5th. Some children who have weak subjects would be well advised to do some reviewing before that time.

Starting the first Monday in May our store will close at 6.00 p.m. instead of the usual 6.30 on MONDAYS, TUESDAYS AND WEDNESDAYS ONLY in consideration of our employees.
