EASTER DRAMA BY 50-50 CLUB

A service of dramatic Easter worship was conducted by the 50-50 Club of St. John's United Church on Easter Sunday evening in the Memorial Hall.

The worship was conducted by Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hills, club presidents, and included scripture readings from the gospels of St. Matthew and St. Luke, prayers and the poem "The Cross was His Own". Mrs. Ellenton and Mrs. Chester DeForest sang duets: "The Old Rugged Cross" and "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross."

A religious drama "Into His Kingdom" had its setting in the sunrise chamber in the home of the high priest, Calaphas, and the time was just before sunrise on the first Easter morning. The plot, as it unfolded, revealed the influence of Christ on the people who dared to follow Him — Nicodemus, Reba and finally Adina.

Rev. Jon M. Smith directed the drama and Mrs. H. C. Wigglesworth was pianist and Ernest Forgrave played the trumpet. Assisting with the play were Mrs. Graham Farnell and Mrs. Harv Lee.

The cast included:
Joseph Calaphas, the Chief Priest, Ernest Hyde; Adina, his wife, Mrs. Al Zeraviev; Malchus his servant, Vern McCumber; Nicodemus, Graham Farnell; Tamah, maidservant to Adina, Mrs. Joe Emmerson; Jabel, member of a robber band, Reg Broomhead; Reba, a young Idumean girl, Mrs. James Evans; Roman Captain, James Evans.
