Mexico Honeymoon For Saturday Bridal

In High Park United Church, Toronto, on Saturday afternoon, W. T. Craig Reid, Georgetown, Holstein breeder and exporter, married Marjorie Ruddell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Ruddell of Toronto. The groom is the son of Mr. Robert Reid and the late Mrs. Reid. The church was decorated with pink and white snapdragons and ferns. Dr. P. E. H. James officiated and Mrs. Jack Ruddell, Toronto, played violin music during the signing of the register.

The bride wore peau-d'ange lace over tulle tulle, with matching cap. Her cascade bouquet was of Sweetheart roses, and stephanotis.

Dr. E. G. Pieva Here Community Planning

Dr. E. G. Pieva, professor of Geography at the University of Western Ontario, gave an enlightening talk on Community Planning in Georgetown on Friday.

Dr. Pieva was speaker at a turkey dinner held by St. John's Men's Club, at which members and guests totalling ninety were served dinner by the church W.A.

"If you like things as they are, you are living in the wrong place," he told his listeners, pointing out that in a decade southern Ontario has increased 23 per cent in population and 47 per cent in industry. This is only the beginning of a tremendous growth in this part of Ontario, he said.

Warning of the danger of becoming a dormitory community, he showed that unless a town has industry to pay a large share of taxes, these soon become excessive. Residential property does not pay its own way under our tax set-up. He cited Kitchener as the best balanced community in the district, with 50 per cent residential area, 25 per cent industrial and 25 per cent commercial.

To get industry a town should put its best foot forward, but should be careful to point out all the facts, he advised. Services such as water supply, sewerage and streets are important. Schools, churches, cultural and recreational facilities all play their part when an industrialist is looking for a location. Don't offer something for nothing, he warned, for that only makes a prospect suspicious. Industry knows that in one way or another they will have to pay taxes.

Only specific reference he made to Georgetown in his speech was a hint that the town should do something about beautifying the river flats on the highway which do not give strangers a good impression of the town.

Rev. John M. Smith introduced Dr. Pieva. Chairman for the evening was Ern Hyde, who was introduced by club president, Alex MacLaren. Reg Brownhead led a sing-song, with Jim Burns at the piano.

Matron of honour was her sister, Mrs. Nell Ramsay, Trenton, who wore hyacinth tulle taffeta and a corsage of Sweetheart roses, pansies and sweet peas.

The groom's brother, Fraser Reid, Toronto was groomsmen and ushers were Nell Ramsay, Trenton and the groom's cousin, Herb Reid, Georgetown.

A reception was held for one hundred guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ruddell, Irlington, where the bride's mother received in a navy blue gown with pink accessories. The groom's sister, Mrs. Luella McDonald assisted, wearing blue with pink accessories. Both had corsages of roses and boys. An honoured guest was the bride's grandmother, Mrs. S. K. Ruddell, Georgetown, who celebrates her 95th birthday this Sunday. The wedding bouquet was presented to her.

The couple left on a honeymoon trip south and will visit Mexico before returning home to take up residence at Iteldson Farms, Georgetown.

On Sunday a picked patrol with P. L. Gerald Scott, 2nd Jack Livingstone, Ross McGillivray, George Gibbs, Kerry Jepson, Bruce Denham returned from a weekend forestry camporee held at St. Williams forestry station. They were left without a leader all weekend and were inspected constantly. In a class of 29 these scouts stood fifth with a mark of 78 per cent.

Senior and junior cubs are anxiously awaiting camp which begins June 30th and lasts till July 4th.

$150 has been turned over to the camping fund by the ladies auxiliary. The donation, raised by the variety concert and catering for banquets, was turned over to the scouts at the auxiliary meeting Monday in St. John's memorial hall. The ladies are hoping to have a larger auxiliary in the fall and invite all mothers and friends of the scouts to join with them.

The Little Beavers and Blue sixes defeated the Grey and Yellow sixes in a ball game this week. Ball games seem to be the main activity this time of year.

Plans are being made for the scout sale June 6th. Any donations of saleable articles will be greatly appreciated.
