GARDEN MYSTERY

One of the great mysteries, writes Napier Moore in The Financial Post, is how a yard, carefully tidied up in the late fall and covered with a blanket of snow for months, when spring comes, can disgorge such an outstanding amount of litter.

The Triplets

Which Triplet Trades at McClure's

Foolish question! Who but the smirking gent in the middle? He feels like he practically stole a choice piece of merchandise. Actually he merely bought at an average-for-us price. Look, Mister, when your wife's birthday rolls around there are four sure fire gifts which will make her scream for joy. 1. A Mink coat. 2. A new convertible. 3. A jugful of diamonds. 4. Any item from our store. Of the choices we prefer No. 4, of course. Drop in and price around a bit, and we're sure you'll agree.
