

THE GEORGETOWN HERALD

TWELVE PAGES

Georgetown, Ontario, Wednesday, June 25th, 1952

TWELVE PAGES

Stan Allen is Choice For CCF Candidate

A second Georgetown candidate for the next federal elections has been named.

At a meeting in Milton last week, Stan Allen, a member of the town council and president of the union at Smith & Stone, was chosen to contest the riding for the CCF party.

Sybil Bennett, K.C. has already been chosen as Conservative candidate. As yet, there is no candidate to replace Hughes Cleaver, M.P., who has announced his retirement. Prominently mentioned as Liberal candidate is Kenneth Dick, Milton lawyer.

Mrs. Jacob Kennedy Dies in Hamilton

Mrs. Agnes Kennedy, wife of Jacob D. Kennedy, died on Sunday, June 22nd at her residence, 188 Balsam Ave. South, Hamilton.

The former Agnes Smith, she was born at Orchard, Ontario, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Smith. She had lived in Hamilton for the past 36 years, and was a member of Philpot Tabernacle. Mrs. Kennedy resided on the 4th line Erin, with her mother and the late Mr. and Mrs. Alex Russell, until moving to Georgetown in 1889. Until 1915, she lived on George St. in the house now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Ed Beerman.

She is survived by her husband, one son Hugh of Hamilton, three daughters, Mrs. Annie Henry, London, Mrs. R. A. Braby, Toronto and Miss Elizabeth Kennedy at home, and one sister, Mrs. Esther Coombs, Hamilton. A son, pastor L. A. Kennedy predeceased her in 1947.

The funeral service was held this afternoon at Blackford and Wray's Chapel, with interment in Woodland Cemetery.

LIVED IN LIMEHOUSE MANY YEARS AGO

A resident of Limehouse many years ago, Mrs. William H. McDowell died in Toronto on June 15th. She was formerly Mary Elizabeth Lepoldivn.

Surviving are her husband, two daughters, Mrs. J. H. Ross and Mrs. Charles Riches, and three sisters, Mrs. R. B. Storey, Mrs. Ada McDowell and Mrs. W. T. Mills, of Limehouse.

Interment was in Prospect Cemetery following the funeral service in Toronto last Wednesday.

Family Book Issued For Howson Reunion

The third edition of the Howson family book was available at the reunion of members of the clan in Lowville Community Park on June 21st.

The book, naming 1500 descendants of John Howson and Ann Foster, was compiled by Frank H. Leslie, Albert Howson of Lorne Park, Mrs. George Dawson, Milton, and Mrs. Hazel Rabjohn, Toronto. Mr. Leslie, who is publisher of the Niagara Falls Review printed 1,000 copies of the book at his own expense, and they are being sold for 50c with the money to be used to finance future picnics.

As members of the family arrived at the park, they were registered by Mrs. Ellen Rendhead, and Mrs. Velma Norris, Milton, and given name tags. A program of sports was convened by Richard Nixon, Thistletown and Mrs. Gordon MacNab had charge of the lunch committee. Rev. Griffin Thompson, of Milton, pronounced Grace, then all enjoyed the social fellowship together. Someone remarked that the Howson Clan had been drawn closer to each other this year than ever before.

Special prizes included those to the oldest lady, Mrs. S. K. Ruddell, Georgetown, who is 94; Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Nixon with the largest family attending; Murray Brownridge, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Brownridge, youngest child on the grounds; and Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Howson, Wingham, the newest married couple.

The register showed guests present from St. Catharines, Toronto, Hamilton, Guelph, Galt, Montreal, Norval, Acton, Winnipeg, Winona, Byron, Mt. Dennis, London, Niagara Falls, Lorne Park, Limehouse, Wingham, Oakville, Clarkson, Dundas, Mt. Forest, Teeswater, Ripley, Thistletown, Waterford, Milton, and district.

Officers elected for the 1954 reunion are: Dean Leslie, past president; Herbert Staples, president; Gordon MacNab, vice president; Norman Brown, secretary; Harold Lugdlin, treasurer; Fred Brett, sports convener; Mrs. Robert Anderson, refreshments; Frank H. Leslie, Albert Howson, Mrs. George Dawson, Mrs. H. Rabjohn, historical committee, with a general committee chosen by the president.

THE WEATHER

Mr. Editor: "How dry I am" is the song of the gardens just now. It is quite a different month of June this year than last year, because, by this date in June 1951, we had almost 5 inches of rain. However, June is not yet over.

Date	Max	Min.	Rain
June 10	74	56
June 17	81	55
June 18	76	54	Trace
June 19	64	56
June 20	69	44	Trace
June 21	70	51
June 22	71	54

Average 72 14 52 85 08

GLEN WILLIAMS

Present For Minister Leaving for Oshawa

Presentation of a table lamp was made to Rev. and Mrs. Alex Cowan at a meeting of the United Church Friendship Club on Wednesday. The Cowans leave next month for a new church in Oshawa. An address was read by John Hepburn and Mrs. John Wagstaffe made the presentation. Final plans were made at the meeting for the garden party on July 4th.

Ninth and 10th Line neighbours gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wagstaffe Friday to present the newlyweds with a tright and a combination end table and magazine rack. Mr. and Mrs. Norman Felker supplied music for dancing and the evening's entertainment ended with a sing-song.

Visitors on Sunday at Brookville were Mr. and Mrs. John Wagstaffe with Mr. and Mrs. Al Allen, and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Bullock with Mr. and Mrs. John Frank Sr.

For the first time in years, St. Alban's Sunday School had a picnic on Saturday at the lacrosse grounds. The children thoroughly enjoyed a program of races and ball games.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Logan and Mr. and Mrs. Archie Campbell left Monday for an extended motor trip west. They will travel through the States and will visit the ladies brother, Russell Robinson, who is working on a ranch at Black Diamond, Alberta.

BALLINAFAD

EXCHANGE CANDY AT EVENING AUXILIARY

The Junior meeting of the Evening Auxiliary was held at the home of Mrs. Thomas Gibson.

The program was opened with a poem read by Mrs. Maurice Baker, devotional was read by Mrs. Elwood Snow and a solo sung by Mrs. F. J. Shortill. Roll call was an exchange of home made candy and recipe. Mrs. Ken Cotton gave the topic. The hostess served lunch after the meeting.

Misses Lydia Snow, Yvonne Jakes and Betty Kay and Mrs. J. W. Snow spent the week-end at North Bay.

STEWARTTOWN

Fire This Afternoon Does Some Damage

Some damage was caused at the home of Mrs. S. McClean, Stewarttown this afternoon when an overheated iron set fire to a table and destroyed it and some clothing.

Mrs. McClean was absent from the house at the time, and the fire was noticed by a neighbor, Bob Harris, who has a store next door. With Ken Murray, who was in the store at the time, he rushed to the house with an extinguisher, and a call was put in for Georgetown brigade. The fire was soon extinguished, but there will be some damage from water and smoke.

The fire caused extra excitement for residents of the village, many of whom were attending the school picnic when it occurred.

HERALD HOLIDAY

The Herald staff is taking the Dominion Day holiday a few days earlier. The shop will close Friday noon for the week end, and will work as usual on July 1st. Cooperation of those sending in news and of advertisers will be appreciated in turning in copy as early as possible in order that the regular edition can be published next Wednesday. If there is no answer at the Herald Office on Friday or Saturday, please phone business calls to 651.

Troussea Tea Today, M. Hepburn Much Feted

Miss Marion Hepburn whose wedding to George Heaver, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Heaver, Hamilton, is planned for this Saturday in Knox Church, has been much feted during the past few weeks.

Mrs. Arthur Townson, Hamilton, held a miscellaneous shower for her niece as did Mrs. Thomas Heaver. Mrs. Arthur Bespount, Glen Williams, had a party shower, Miss Pat Townson, Hamilton, a cousin, a party shower; and a group of friends at the home of Mrs. Thelma Capra Morrison, Brampton, presented her with a lamp table.

The festival executive and music supervisors of Halton County met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Giles on June 2nd, and gave her an electric kettle, and on June 4th the staff of Oakville High School, where Mr. Heaver teaches, gave them a silver relish tray. On June 10th, Georgetown public school teachers had a dinner at Hawthorne Lodge, Milton, with a joint presentation to Miss Hepburn and Miss Mildred Eason, another bride-elect, each with a card table. The high school staff and girls' choir gave her a silver cream and sugar service, the Knitting Club, on June 11 at the home of Mrs. Garfield McGilvray, a linen table cloth, and Knox Church choir, on June 12th, at the home of Mrs. James Ritchee, an automatic toaster.

Presentations were made by pupils of rural schools where Miss Hepburn taught music, including a vase from Waterloo, a dozen roses and a figurine from Norval, a pair of vases from the Stone School, and a pair of figurines, Dublin. Pupils of Georgetown public school gave her four folding chairs.

Festivities have continued this week with a miscellaneous shower Monday at the home of Mrs. William Korzak, Glen Williams, and a linen shower last night at the home of Mrs. John D. Kelly, tendered by her mother in honour, Mrs. Peter Moorehouse, Oakville. Today there is a trousseau tea at her home in Glen Williams.

Wartime Friendship Renewed This Week

Letters which have been kept by letter with a Scottish family who were kind to Georgetown soldiers were renewed in person this week with the visit of Mrs. Sarah Inuitzki of Philadelphia, Pa.

Mrs. Inuitzki is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Harley. During the war her family, named Tallo, entertained Mr. Harley, Jim and Bill Collier and Ed Hill while they were stationed in Sicily with the Canadian troops. Later Mrs. Inuitzki married an American serviceman and came to the States to live, and she and Mrs. Harley had become acquainted in numerous letters which passed between the ladies. Her family home is at Gardini, Sicily.

MIDGETS STILL WIN BEAT CARLISLE HERE

In Carlisle on Saturday, Georgetown Midgets won another ball game, winning 14-6 from the home team.

Butch Herrington pitched all the way and did a fine job, with Bob Webster catching. Herrington struck out 15 and had a no hitter going into the 7th. Carlisle got all their six hits and 2 walks in the last two innings, and two errors by Georgetown gave them their score.

Ross McGill got a homer with two men on base, and Calvin King scored two men on a triple. The rest of the team got their share of hits too.

Transportation to the game was provided by Ivan Crabtree, H. Chaplin and Bob Reeve, George Webster umpired.

Georgetown plays again Thursday night here, with Waterford the visiting team. Game time is 8.30.

Legion Decorates Graves At Annual Service Sunday

Members of the Legion and the Legion W.A. paraded on Sunday for the annual Decoration Day service in Greenwood Cemetery.

The parade, led by the Lorne Scots Band, stopped at the Conception route to lay wreaths in memory of those who had fallen in two World Wars.

At the cemetery, Archdeacon W. G. O. Thompson conducted the service. The names of those who died in World War 1 were read by Henry Shepherd; those who died in World War 2 and in Korea by Legion president Leslie Clark; and Legion members who have died since their war service by Fred McCartney. Mrs. Alex Taylor read names of deceased members of the Auxiliary.

The Fire Brigade and Lorne Scots local company also took part in the parade.

Silver Dollars For Inspector's Anniversary

On June 18th the spacious auditorium of Glenwood School was the setting for a banquet when Halton public school teachers entertained L. L. Skuce, inspector of public schools and Mrs. Skuce on the occasion of their 25th wedding anniversary.

After supper, served by ladies of Adelpy United Church, L. Fulford, president of Halton Teachers' Institute took charge of the program. Under leadership of G. M. Evans, Oakville, and S. Buchanan, pianist, 175 teachers and guests enjoyed a short sing-song. Solos and duets in keeping with the anniversary theme were sung by Mr. and Mrs. Asher, Trafalgar Township.

Highlight of the evening came when J. A. Lockhart, Burlington, on behalf of the teachers of the Institute spoke of the high esteem in which both Mr. and Mrs. Skuce are held of the educational advancement which Mr. Skuce has promoted in Halton, and of Mrs. Skuce's valuable services in community welfare.

Miss Beatrice Hulme, Georgetown, presented 25 red roses tied with silver ribbon to Mrs. Skuce and Mr. Lockhart presented Mr. and Mrs. Skuce with a money bag containing one hundred silver dollars as a tangible expression of affection and good wishes.

In words well chosen, Mr. and Mrs. Skuce thanked the teachers for their gifts in recognition of this special occasion and expressed their appreciation for the honour which had been bestowed upon them.

Three Omagh Youths Hurt in Accident

Three Omagh men were injured when their auto overturned on a side road near Ashgrove Sunday night.

Lorne Long, 21 and Clifford Steeves, 16 were trapped in the overturned car and removed by Constables James McNeven and Howard Bunn. The former suffered internal injuries and the latter cuts to the head. Hugh LeRiche, 23, was found lying on the ground 40 feet from the car, with a broken right leg. All were taken to Guelph General Hospital.

Neighbours Fete The Clure Carnivals

A community gathering in Cheltenham village hall recently honoured newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Clure Carnwell, who have been residents of the village since their marriage last month.

The hall was well filled with neighbours who presented them with an electric range and a set of dishes. Herbert Taylor was chairman. Mrs. Mel Boyce read an address and John Overberg and Mel Boyce made the presentation. Short speeches were given by Bert McClure, W. J. Henry, Tom Davidson and the bride's father, Carman Stoddart, Georgetown.

A program included a humorous reading by Mrs. Royce and vocal duets by Kathleen and Ruth McDonald, accompanied by Mrs. Norman House, Mrs. Norman Hutchingson led a sing-song, and Alf Sutcliffe's Orchestra played for dancing after lunch.

ROBIN HOOD COOKING SCHOOL HELD HERE

With Mrs. Scriver as demonstrator, the Robin Hood cooking school was presented by St. George's W.A. in the church basement on Thursday.

A full audience attended and followed with interest the various demonstrations of culinary art. All the baking was given out to members of the audience, for various birthdays, anniversaries -- and one to a male attendant for his bravery in being numbered among so many women. Mrs. Wellington Willett was given a huge cake in honour of her wedding anniversary which came that day.

MRS. COLLINS MOTHER DIED YESTERDAY

Mother of Mrs. Alf Collins of town, Mrs. Edward Jewell died last night in St. Michael's Hospital, Toronto. She had been in ill health for some time.

MRS. MAYBANKS WINS RADIO JACKPOT

Mrs. William Maybanks won the jackpot prize on Maher's Double or Nothing radio program Monday night.

Mrs. Maybanks, whose 16th floor was picked for the audience prize, won $12.

French-Thompson Wedding In Hillsburgh United

Evening Ceremony For Lawrence-Pries Nuptial

On Friday evening at the home of her parents on Victoria Crescent, Merle Pries, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Egmont Pries was married to Fred Donald Lawrence, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lawrence, Port Dover. Rev. E. J. Fischer, Unionville, performed the ceremony.

The bride wore a romance blue street-length dress with bertha collar, ermine underarm and white accessories. She wore a wreath of flowers and carried white roses and stephanotis. Her sister, Miss Frances Pries was her attendant, wearing navy nylon marquisette with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations. The groom's brother, George Lawrence, St. Thomas, was best man.

Members of the immediate family were entertained at a buffet supper afterwards in the garden, the bride's mother wearing dusky rose sheer, white accessories and a white carnation corsage.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence will live in Georgetown where the groom, who is goalie for the Raiders hockey team, is an insurance salesman for Prudential Insurance. The bride is employed in the office of the A. V. Roe Company at Malton.

THREE HUNDRED RAISED IN TAG DAY

A tag day for the Navy League on Saturday netted over $300 for this organization, through the efforts of the Legion W.A. which conducted the campaign.

Mrs. Alex Taylor, Mrs. William Roney, Mrs. John Kemshead and Mrs. Jim Sargent were in charge of arrangements, and lunch was served afterwards to the taggers at the Legion Hall by Mrs. William Roney and Mrs. Fred McCartney. Those who served as taggers were Mrs. J. Kemshead, Sr., Mrs. David Brydon, Mrs. Jim Dickenson, Mrs. Norman Lounds, Mrs. Arthur Wilson, Mrs. Jack Harrison, Mrs. Roy Norton, Josephine Lorusso, Jean Jennings, Margaret Brydon, Sandra Fox, Barbara May Allen, Charlene Day, Lynn Treleaven, Joan Macdonald, David Smith, Mrs. James Hiddlestone, David Hiddlestone, Mrs. William Gibbs, Jo Ann Hodge and Eddie Norton.

Lacrosse Draws Crowds To Acton Saturdays

Just about the hottest thing in lacrosse circles this year is the new Acton B-Hives team which has registered decisive wins in their first three games, two against Norfolk-Brant Mohawks and last Saturday on home ground against Oksweken.

Acton has drawn most of their players from this district, and the team includes many who learned the game at Norval, with a sprinkling of Brampton players as well.

Georgetown, Glen Williams and Norval between them have contributed Junior Beaumont, Doug Townsend, Johnny Haines, Bill Louth, Arnie Hazell, Walt Alexander and Zeke McCandless. Norm Young is goaltender, and other team members include Johnny Brunski, Tom Howell, Bob Wilson, J. Krapek and Larry Tallefer.

In their 11-3 win in Acton Arena Saturday night before a crowd of 800, Hazell, Beaumont and Townsend led the winners, each with two goals. This Saturday, Acton is host to Dundas.

Mayor Attends Eastern Life Insurance Convention

Mayor and Mrs. Jack Armstrong left by motor Thursday for the east coast where they will attend a convention of Mutual Life Assurance agents at Digby Pines, Digby, N.S.

With their sons, Martin, Michael and Paul, they intend to motor to Quebec City, where the boys will visit with Mrs. Armstrong's brother while Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong continue by train to the coast.

Grandsons Pallbearers At Mrs. Loud's Funeral

Six grandsons were pallbearers at the funeral of Mrs. George Loud which took place in St. George's Church last Wednesday.

Mrs. Loud, a merchant here for over a quarter century, died the previous Sunday after suffering a severe stroke. Archdeacon W. G. O. Thompson conducted the service and the pallbearers were George Penson, Jim Preston, Tom Fitzpatrick, Tom McDonald, Lee Sales and Mike Smith.

Appoint New Halton M.O.H.

Dr. Archie Bull has been appointed Medical Officer of Health for Halton County, succeeding Dr. James Mather, who resigned recently to accept a post as professor at the University of British Columbia.

Dr. Bull, who lives in Newmarket, is a graduate of the University of Western Ontario and served during the war in the air force as a radar technician. He will commence his new duties on July 1st.

The United Church, Hillsburgh, beautifully decorated with pink and white peonies, snapdragon and carnations was the setting for the wedding on June 21st of Frances Marguerite-Thompson, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bertrand Thompson, Hillsburgh, and Belmar Henry French, elder son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Campbell, Georgetown. Rev. K. Kallio was the officiating clergyman. Roy Thompson played the traditional wedding music on the organ and Clare Hurt, uncle of the bride sang "The Lord's Prayer" and during the signing of the register "I'll Walk Beside You" and "Because." The groom is employed in Georgetown with Ken McMiklan's farm implement agency.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in imported Chantilly lace and nylon net, styled on Victorian lines. A moulded bodice was topped by a petite lace jacket with slender sleeves ending in lily point cuffs. Tulle bouffant skirts of nylon net with wide panels of Chantilly lace insertions fell to the floor and were enhanced by a floor length silk illusion veil which was held in place by a trim of Chantilly lace and tulle silk net. She carried a shower bouquet of American Beauty roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. Grenville Thompson, sister-in-law, was matron of honour in a floor length strapless gown of orchid nylon marquisette over orchid silk taffeta which featured a matching jacket. The bodice had a shirred semi-sweetheart neckline and the skirt draped softly. A pleated nylon headband studded with pearls and matching mittens completed her costume. She carried a crescent bouquet of Johanna Hill roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. Donald Dorton, cousin of the bride, and Miss Muriel Nodwell were bridesmaids, gowned in dress-styled similar to that of the matron of honour. Mrs. Dorton wore plumrose yellow nylon marquisette over yellow silk and Miss Nodwell wore sea foam green over sea foam taffeta. They carried crescent bouquets of roses and stephanotis. Little Patsy Ann McCuskey, niece of the groom, made a winsome flower girl in floor length yellow and mauve nylon net over pale green taffeta, orchid velvet sash, net mittens and a frilled headress of net. She carried a basket of sweet peas.

Reginald French was his brother's groomsman and Grenville Thompson, brother of the bride, and William McCuskey, brother-in-law of the groom were ushers.

A reception for one hundred guests followed the wedding at Hilltop Lodge, Erin. The bride's mother received in a gown of Queen's blue lace with navy accessories and corsage of pink roses. She was assisted by the groom's mother in ornate crepe and lace and yellow rose corsage.

For a wedding trip east the bride wore a suit of gingersnap shade with champagne accessories and a corsage of Talisman roses. Guests were present from Sault Ste. Marie, Guelph, Toronto, Orangeville, Ferris, Erin and Hillsburgh.

SEE NEPHEW GET PH.D. IN MICHIGAN

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Licata attended convocation at the University of Michigan a week ago Saturday where they saw their nephew, Dr. Harry Licata, receive his degree of Doctor of Philosophy.

Dr. Licata, an Arts graduate of Assumption College, Windsor, and graduate of the University of Western Ontario medical school, is a member of the university staff at Ann Arbor. For his Ph.D. thesis, he wrote a paper on The Human Embryonic Heart at the Beginning of the 3rd month.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Restivo and Dr. Licata's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Licata also attended the event, and on Sunday in Hamilton, Dr. Licata was guest at a large family party at his parents' home in Hamilton.

Appoint New Halton M.O.H.

Dr. Archie Bull has been appointed Medical Officer of Health for Halton County, succeeding Dr. James Mather, who resigned recently to accept a post as professor at the University of British Columbia.

Dr. Bull, who lives in Newmarket, is a graduate of the University of Western Ontario and served during the war in the air force as a radar technician. He will commence his new duties on July 1st.