Marion Hepburn Weds High School Teacher

Four attendants gowned in flamingo red made a colourful complement to the traditional white wedding gown at the marriage on Saturday of Marion Isabel Hepburn and George Richard Heaver in Knox Presbyterian Church.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hepburn, Glen Williams, is one of Georgetown's best known musicians. She has been music teacher in the high school here and in public schools in Georgetown, Glen Williams, Milton and a number of other district schools as well as teaching private lessons in piano and voice. The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Heaver, Hamilton, has been history teacher at Oakville High School and joins the staff of Port Perry school in September. He is a graduate of McMaster University and the Ontario College of Education.

Standards of white promies decorated the church for the marriage which was solemnized by Rev. Alex J. Calder. Assisting was Canon A. G. F. Holmes of Niagara Falls. Mrs. James F. Evans was organist and the Girl Choir of Georgetown High School, garbed in their scarlet and blue gowns, sang "The Voice That Breathed Our Eden" as the bride entered the church, and "Holy Spirit, Truth Divine" while the register was signed.

The bridal gown was of mist Chantilly lace over blush satin, fashioned with a moulded basque and long pointed sleeves. Blush net formed the yoke above the applied portrait neckline. The skirt, accented with graceful godets of pleated net, outlined with lace, was softly gathered to the corded waist and fell in folds to a beak sweep. A matching cap held a fingertip veil of tulle illusion. She carried a cascade of white roses and lily of the valley.

Mrs. Peter Moorehouse, Oakville, was matron of honour, and the three bridesmaids were the bride's cousin, Miss Patricia Townson, Hamilton, the groom's sister, Miss Eileen Heaver, Hamilton, and Miss Judith Beaumont. All wore flamingo red taffeta with matching picture hat and mits of nylon net. They carried cascades of blue carnations, yellow daisies and snapdragon. The bride's sister, Maureen, as junior bridesmaid wore white taffeta with flamingo velvet sash and a white flowered headpiece.

Mr. Hepburn gave his daughter in marriage. Groomsman was John Sutherland, Ottawa, and ushers the brothers of bride and groom, Edgar Heaver, Hamilton and Robert Hepburn.

Mrs. Hepburn received in the church hall in dusty rose tissue faille, matching accessories and a corsage of blue carnations and pink roses. The groom's mother was gowned in pale blue crepe and lace with corsage of pink roses.

For a honeymoon trip to Muskoka, the bride wore a navy blue shantung suit with white and navy accessories and a corsage of red roses.

THE WEATHER

Mr. Editor: WIFE — what a week. Not a bad start for the first week of summer, and it ended with a beautiful rain — and now on to July and Holidays.

MOTHER ENTERTAINS AT TROUSSEAU TEA

Mrs. John Hepburn entertained at a trousseau tea for her daughter Marion last Wednesday afternoon and evening.

Mrs. Arthur Beaumont, and Mrs. William Cromar poured tea during the afternoon and Mrs. James F. Evans, Mrs. H. C. Wigglesworth, Mrs. J. C. Morrison, Brampton and Mrs. Thomas Heaver, Hamilton in the evening. Those assisting were Miss Barbara Cromar, Eileen Heaver, Eleanor Schenk, Beverly Hyde, Jacqueline Lucas, Judith Beaumont, Shirley Forbes, Georgina Perryman, Maureen Hepburn, Gail Wheeler, Patricia Townson, Glenn Doherty, and Mrs. Peter Moorehouse. ## Bousfield Family Reunion At Lloyd Fisher Farm

The nineteenth Bousfield reunion was held on June 21st at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Fisher at Ashgrove, when over a hundred guests gathered on the spacious lawn of their lovely farm home.

After a picnic dinner, the president, Wilson Sutton, gave a short address of welcome and a minute of silence was observed for those who had died since the last reunion two years ago.

Clarence Bousfield gave a short history of the family. It is over a hundred years since the late John Bousfield settled in Trafalgar Township. A letter of greeting was read from Mrs. E. McFall of Brandon, Manitoba. Mrs. McFall, who lives with her son there, is still quite active and it was a disappointment that she could not attend the family gathering this year.
