Guest-Ryall Wedding Saturday at Norval

At St. Paul's Anglican Church, Norval, on Saturday, Rev. J. E. Maxwell solemnized the marriage of Orla, Edith Ryall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Ryall, Georgetown, and Roy Agar Guest, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Agar Guest, of Georgetown.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a street length dress of flowered silk, white picture hat and accessories and a corsage of American Beauty and white roses. Miss Marilyn Guest, sister of the groom, was maid of honour, wearing printed nylon sheen, small white hat and matching accessories. She wore a corsage of yellow roses.

Mr. Bruce Logan Toronto, was groomsmen and Mr. Blake Hunt, Highland Creek, uncle of the bride, ushered Mrs. Maxwell was the organist.

A reception was held at the bride's home. Mrs. Ryall received wearing a navy and white dress-maker suit, white and navy hat, navy accessories and a corsage of red roses. Due to the illness of the groom's mother, his sister, Mrs. George Kenzie, Timmins, also received, wearing pale blue figured silk, white picture hat and matching accessories and a corsage of red roses.

The young couple left on a motor trip to eastern Ontario. They will reside in Georgetown.

Was Bookkeeper at Old Paper Mill

Following a severe stroke which she suffered a few days earlier, Mrs. Robert Gault died at her home on Factory Street on June 22nd.

Although it has been many years since Mrs. Gault had been able to be out, she had a great many friends. Several years ago an arthritic condition left her almost completely paralyzed. Never did she let this dim her cheerfulness and friendliness and a large circle of acquaintances called on her regularly. She will leave many pleasant memories in their minds.

The former Mary Harriett (Mamie) Sutton, she was born in Guelph, daughter of John Sutton and Mary Robertson and moved to Georgetown as a child. Here she attended public and high school, and later Guelph Business College. She was bookkeeper for the late John H. Barber at the old paper mill for eight years, then when the present Alliance Mill was built she had a similar position there for two years.

After her marriage to Robert Hamilton Gault, she moved to Michael's Bay Manitoulin Island, and later to Manitowaning, where she resided until moving back to Georgetown in 1924. Mrs. Gault died in 1923. She was a member of Knox Presbyterian Church. She is survived by one daughter, Marjorie.

A private service was conducted at her home on Tuesday morning by Rev. Alex J. Calder, assisted by Archdeacon W. G. O. Thompson. Pallbearers were four nephews, Frank Roy and Arthur Gore, Toronto, and M. B. Rixon, Hamilton, and Ernest Backin and Everett Cole. Interment was in Deseronto Cemetery where Mr. Calder conducted a graveside service.

Dies After Operation In Guelph Hospital

A few days after undergoing a serious operation James Stanley Corner died in St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph, on Sunday morning.

Mr. Corner, who was in his 45th year, was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Corner and was born in Milton. The family later lived on the 10th Line, and for 25 years he had resided at Stewartstown. He and his wife had moved to Georgetown only a few days before he entered hospital.

He is survived by his wife, formerly Ethel Harrison, one brother, Austin Corner of Belthouston, two step-sisters, Mrs. James Darby, Fruitland, and Mrs. Wesley Kindree, Nanticoke, and a step brother, Milton Zimmerman, Toronto.

Six nephews were pallbearers at the funeral service on Tuesday at the McClure Funeral Home which was conducted by Rev. Alfred Barker. Interment was in Greenwood Cemetery, Georgetown.

Hornby Church Funeral For Mr. Arthur Brain

Funeral service for Arthur M. Brain, son of the late Theodore and Susan Brain, was held June 20th, from his home, Ninth Line Esplanade Township, at St. Stephen's Church, Hornby, conducted by Rev. J. E. Maxwell, rector, assisted by Rev. Theodore Brain of St. Mary Magdalene Church, Toronto, his nephew.

He leaves his wife, the former Elizabeth Castle, three sons, William, Harold, Gordon and a daughter, Mary, a brother, E. Foster Brain, Hornby, and a sister (Charlotte) Mrs. J. G. Ellenton, Kincaid.

A Masonic service was held at the graveside conducted by V. W. Bro. E. A. Maas of River Park Lodge, A. F. & A. M., Streetsville, of which he was a member.

Pallbearers were all Masonic brethren, Joe Featherstone, Wilfred Thompson, Carl Saunders, Stanley Hall, John Bussell and W. H. Robinson.

Over Three Hundred At St. John's Picnic

A most successful picnic, arranged by a committee of the Men's Club under Ernie Alcott, was enjoyed by members of St. John's United Church, numbering over 300, at Stanley Park, Erin, on Thursday.

Swimming and boating supplemented the program of races, and the children were given ice cream cones and the smaller ones toy novelties. A treasure hunt and a sing-song concluded the party in the early evening.

Mrs. Arthur Beaumont, and Mrs. William Cromar poured tea during the afternoon and Mrs. James F. Evans, Mrs. H. C. Wigglesworth, Mrs. J. C. Morrison, Brantford and Mrs. Thomas Heaver, Hamilton in the evening. Those assisting were Miss Barbara Cromar, Eileen Heaver, Eleanor Schenk, Beverley Hyde, Jacqueline Lucas, Judith Beaumont, Shirley Forbes, Georgina Perryman, Maureen Hepburn, Gail Wheeler, Patricia Townson, Glenna Doherty, and Mrs. Peter Moorehouse. Two hundred guests called during the afternoon and evening.

Bousfield Family Reunion At Lloyd Fisher Farm

The nineteenth Bousfield reunion was held on June 21st at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Fisher at Ashgrove, when over a hundred guests gathered on the spacious lawn of their lovely farm home.

After a picnic dinner, the president, Wilson Sutton, gave a short address of welcome and a minute of silence was observed for those who had died since the last reunion two years ago.

Clarence Bousfield gave a short history of the family. It is over a hundred years since the late John Bousfield settled in Trafalgar Township. A letter of greeting was read from Mrs. E. McFay of Brandon, Manitoba. Mrs. McFay, who lives with her son there, is still quite active and it was a disappointment that she could not attend the family gathering this year.

Officers elected for the next reunion are: Wilson Sutton, Erin, John Wilson, London, and John Barnes, Norval, honorary presidents, Robert Laking, Moffat, president, Spencer Wilson, Norval, vice president, Archie Gunby, 2nd vice president, Clarence Bousfield, secretary; Mrs. Archie Gunby, treasurer.

The sports committee, in charge of Spencer Wilson and Frank Wilson, carried out a program of games and races in the afternoon. At the supper hour, prizes were awarded to the oldest lady and gentleman, Mrs. Hugh Cunningham, Norval and Mr. John Wilson, London. A prize was also given to the youngest member present, Brian Winterton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Winterton, London.

Winners of the races were: Girls 5 and under, Doreen Fisher; Boys 5 and under, Jack Cunningham; Girls 6-8, Susan Cunningham, Glenn Stark; Boys 6-8, Cecil Gunby, John Wilson; Girls 9-11, Gloria Wilson, Marilyn Wilson; Boys 9-11, David Cunningham, John Wilson; Girls 12-14, Myrna Wilson, Leone Bussell; Boys 12-14, Ross Cunningham, Glenn Martin; Single ladies, Myrna Wilson, Leone Bussell; Young men, Jamie Cunningham, Grant Stark; Ladies step-off, Mrs. L. Dixon; Men's step-off, Howard Alderson; Lucky spot, Mrs. S. Gowland; Throwing ball, Ross Cunningham; Shoe scramble, Leone Bussell, David Cunningham; Ladies shoe kick, Mrs. Albert Hunter.

Four attendants gowned in flamingo red made a colourful complement to the traditional white wedding gown at the marriage on Saturday of Marion Isabel Hepburn and George Richard Heaver in Knox Presbyterian Church.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hepburn, Glen Williams, is one of Georgetown's best known musicians. She has been music teacher in the high school here and in public schools in Georgetown, Glen Williams, Milton and a number of other district schools, as well as teaching private lessons in piano and voice. The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Heaver, Hamilton, has been history teacher at Oakville High School and joins the staff of Port Perry school in September. He is a graduate of McMaster University and the Ontario College of Education.

Standards of white peonies decorated the church for the marriage which was solemnized by Rev. Alex J. Calder. Assisting was Canon A. G. F. Holmes of Niagara Falls. Mrs. James F. Evans was organist and the Girl's Choir of Georgetown High School, garbed in their scarlet and blue gowns, sang "The Voice That Breathed Our Eden" as the bride entered the church, and "Holy Spirit, Truth Divine" while the register was signed.

The bridal gown was of mist Chantilly lace over blush satin, fashioned with a moulded basque and long pointed sleeves. Blush net formed the yoke above the applied portrait neckline. The skirt, accented with graceful godets of pleated net, outlined with lace, was softly gathered to the corded waist and fell in folds to a back sweep. A matching cap held a fingertip veil of tulle illusion. She carried a cascade of white roses and lily of the valley.

Mrs. Peter Moorehouse, Oakville, was matron of honour, and the three bridesmaids were the bride's cousin, Miss Patricia Townson, Hamilton, the groom's sister, Miss Eileen Heaver, Hamilton, and Miss Judith Beaumont. All wore flamingo red taffeta, with matching picture hat and muffs of nylon net. They carried cascades of blue carnations, yellow daisies and snapdragon. The bride's sister, Maureen, as junior bridesmaid wore white taffeta with flamingo velvet sash and a white flowered headpiece.

Mr. Hepburn gave his daughter in marriage. Groomsmen were John Sutherland, Ottawa, and ushers the brothers of bride and groom, Edgar Heaver, Hamilton and Robert Hepburn.

Mrs. Hepburn received in the church hall in dusty rose tissue faille, matching accessories and a corsage of blue carnations and pink roses. The groom's mother was gowned in pale blue crepe and lace with corsage of pink roses.

For a honeymoon trip to Muskoka, the bride wore a navy blue shantung suit with white and navy accessories and a corsage of red roses.
