Mr. and Mrs. Garvin Die Week Apart

Residents of town many years ago, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Garvin died within three days of each other in Barrie. Mrs. Garvin, who was in her 79th year died on Friday at her son's home and Mr. Garvin, who had been in hospital for several weeks, passed away Monday night.

Mr. Garvin, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Alex Garvin, worked for the Bell Telephone Co. here and in Newmarket and was in the garage business in Barrie for several years. He had latterly been employed in the tannery there.

Mrs. Garvin was the former Elizabeth Lake, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lake. She was born at Stayner and lived at Seaford before moving to Georgetown with her parents. Following her marriage to Mr. Joseph Garvin of Limehouse, they lived in Georgetown for a few years, then moved to Newmarket and later to Barrie where they had resided over forty years.

The couple are survived by three sons and three daughters, Stanley of Lockport, N.Y., Lewis, Rochester, N.Y., Mrs. Wilma Sande (Irene) Syracuse, N.Y., Mrs. Wilfred Valois (Agnes) North Bay, Jack of Barrie and Helen. One of a family of ten, Mrs. Garvin leaves five brothers and two sisters, Ted Lake, Orilla, Tignas Lake, Lynn Lake, N.W.T., Charles Lakefield, Joseph, Powassan, George, Thornhill, Mrs. C. Stumpf, (Mary) Elmira, and Mrs. A. H. Feller (Lucy) of town. Mr. Garvin's only brother, Leonard lives in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Feller attended the funeral service on Monday at the Pethick-Smith Funeral Home in Barrie. Interment was in Barrie Union Cemetery. They returned to Barrie today to attend Mr. Garvin's funeral.

Presentation at Norval For Rev. and Mrs. Cowan

Rev. and Mrs. Alex Cowan and family, who leave this week for Oshawa where Mr. Cowan will be in charge of a new church, were honoured Monday by their United Church congregations of Norval, Glen Williams and Home Church.

Two hundred members of the church gathered in the Norval church and presented them with a trillium lamp. Mrs. W. J. Taylor reading the address and Mr. W. T. Graham making the presentation. A present of an electric clock was made by Ina Webb for the choir, Julian Reed reading the presentation address. The Cowan's young daughters, Susan and Joan, received silver spoons, presented by Catherine McLaughlin and Margaret Alexander.

Mr. Cowan will be succeeded in the Norval Charge by the Reverend Gilbert who comes here from Honey Harbour.

Jack Addy was chairman for a musical program which included many selections by people of the congregation. Those singing solos were Eleanor Schenk, Maureen Hepburn, Edward Norton, Mrs. Jack May, Doreen Bowes and Mrs. Keith Christie. Betty Hutchinson gave a reading, Donald Garbutt played musical selections, and Joyce and Roland McLean, a piano duet. Piano solos were played by Ruth Wilson and Elaine Laird.

Mr. Cowan voiced his regret at leaving the community and wished every success to the people under their new minister, Mr. Gilbert. During the lunch hour, Lt-Col. A. L. Noble made a short address.

PRIZES ADD INTEREST TO ACTON LACROSSE

An added attraction to the lacrosse game this Saturday night in Acton Arena will be two floor prizes - a Bulova watch and an Adams hat, prizes not claimed at the first game this season.

The B-Hives still continue to be a powerful team in the district league and have won all six of their games to date. Last week they took Dundas and Burlington, each by an 8-5 score and on Friday played a close game with Streetsville - 6-5. Streetsville will be the opposition in the home game this Saturday.

CHURCH LADIES MEET AT MRS. SMITH HOME

On Wednesday evening, June 25, the associate members meeting was held at the home of Mrs. F. Smith, the president Mrs. F. W. Shortill presiding. After the minutes were read and some items of business discussed, the associate secretary opened this part of the meeting by singing hymn 500. The devotional service was taken by Mrs. A. Starert. The guest speaker was Mrs. Brown of Cedarvale School. She told of the work being done for the girls there. Mrs. T. Gibson and Mrs. N. Sinclair sang a duet. Mrs. Jesse McEnery gave a reading on Temperance and Mrs. L. Marshall told how the hymn "Lead Kindly Light" came to be written. The meeting closed by singing that hymn and a prayer. A pleasant half hour was spent during lunch.

Grandsons Pallbearers At Mrs. Jewell Funeral

A resident of Toronto all her life, Mrs. E. J. Jewell died at St. Michael's Hospital last Tuesday following a lengthy illness. She was the mother of Mrs. AH Collins of town. Mrs. Jewell was predeceased four years ago by her husband soon after they had celebrated their golden wedding anniversary. She leaves a family of nine, Mrs. Percy Kilcup, Windsor, N.S., Mrs. Alf Collins, Georgetown, Mrs. William Austin, Weston, Mrs. William Stubbs, of Windsor, Mrs. Albert Noakes, Mrs. Harry Cox, Mrs. William Bloor, William and Edward Jewell, Toronto.

Six grandsons were pallbearers at the funeral service on Friday at the Wm. Speers Funeral Chapel. They were Cpl. Bruce Collins, Robert Stubbs, William Austin, Fred and Joe Standforth and Clifford Collier. Interment was in Park Lawn Cemetery.

Hockey Club President Insurance Man Moves

Prudential Life Insurance agent here for the past few years, Will Hillis will leave soon for Port Arthur where he has been appointed assistant staff manager.

Mr. Hillis came here from Simcoe, succeeding William McCarvell when he was transferred to London. He has been active in Legion and hockey affairs and was just recently elected president of Georgetown hockey club for next season. Last year he was a member of the Legion executive and for the past two years has been manager of the Legion 120 Club ball team.

He will end his agency here on Friday and then after a two week vacation begins his new duties in Port Arthur. His successor here has not yet been named. Recently the company placed a second agent, Fred Lawrence, in town, to take care of expanding business.

Mrs. Hillis and the children, Paul and David will be joining him in Port Arthur as soon as they find living accommodation there. They previously lived in that district when Mr. Hillis was a member of the Ontario Provincial Police before becoming an insurance salesman.
