LAST OF BARTH FAMILY DIES

A recent visitor with Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Barth was Mr. Irene Schultz, Toronto. Mrs. Schultz, a registered nurse, attended the reunion of graduates of Homewood St. George's and visited with her cousin, the Barth's for a few days. She had just left to return to Toronto when word was received of the sudden death of her mother, Mrs. William Schultz nee Galt. She was the last surviving sister of the late W. B. Barth. The funeral services were held at Mornington and interment in Cross Cemetery, Pushton.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hancock and her mother, Mrs. Fitzpatrick, Toronto, visited in London last week and on Saturday attended the wedding of Laura and her brother, Thomas Fitzpatrick and Theresa McLaughlin.

Week-end visitors with the Jack Crawford, St. were Roger Guyot, St. Toronto and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Jones, Barrie.

Pat O'Donovan, Jack Nelson and Bob Denyer, Toronto, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Deacon and Mrs. Jane Hains. On Sunday morning they attended the christening service in St. Alban's Church for their niece, Patricia Ann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Norton.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Hancock and sons visited on Sunday at Bronte with Mr. and Mrs. Bert Scott.

Mrs. John Hepburn, St. of Colburnwood is visiting with her family here.

The Glen girls have won three of their four ball games played to date. Their only loss was to Horby Next Thursday the 10th, Palermo will play here.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Crosby and son Kenneth of Berwick, N.S. arrived Monday by plane to spend this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Schenk.

MIDGETS WILL PLAY OFF WITH ACTON

Georgetown Midgets, behind the pitching of Ross McGill, won 11-4 against Waterdown last Thursday. McGill struck out twelve Jim Timleck was behind the plate. The return game is being played in Waterdown today.

Waterdown collected three runs in the 1st, only to have Georgetown tie the score in their half of the inning. In the 3rd the locals went on a 7-run spree. Waterdown got their extra run in the 4th, and Georgetown added another in the last innings.

Playoffs will take place in the group between Georgetown and Acton. The Tanners, who won one game from Georgetown, are the only team which has bested the local Midgets. Winners will meet either Oakville or Port Credit for the Halton championship and the winners will advance into the OHA playoffs.

LOCAL MASONS HAVE STRAWBERRY NIGHT

On Tuesday, June 24th, after the regular meeting of Credit Lodge, the members held their annual strawberry night. Refreshments consisting almost entirely of a plentiful supply of strawberries. This marks the close of the meetings of Credit Lodge until September.
