

What Council Did

ON MONDAY, JULY 7th

Heard a deputation from Normandy Boulevard in regard to surveys of their property. They suggested that a reasonable surveyor's fee might be derived if their lots could be surveyed when the town is surveying for the new sidewalks. Council promised to contact the engineer in this regard.

Gave Smith & Stone Ltd. permission to install a fire alarm system between their plant on King St. and the area at the town hall and the station.

Fire Chief Hyde said the firemen were willing to finance the purchase of a 3-ton panel truck for use by the brigade if council would maintain it. It was felt that a small truck was necessary to carry extra equipment. Council agreed to this.

Passed a resolution setting the standby time for the proposed Esquering fire area at $1.00 on every $2500 assessment, and instructed the clerk to forward same to the township.

Granted the Fire Brigade the usual $100 to meet expenses at the convention to be held this year at Stamford Centre.

Set Monday, August 4, as a Civic Holiday for Georgetown.

Being asked by the rent controller as to whether they wished rent controls to come off in Georgetown in the near future, council felt that while this was a provincial matter, they did not favour the relaxation of controls at the present time.

By-laws were given first and second readings in regards to the paving, sewer and sidewalk program being undertaken by council. They will now be forwarded to the Municipal Board, whose consent council must have before issuing the necessary debentures.

A number of hazardous trees will be taken down. The Cedarvale Tree Experts being hired to do the job.

$90 Divides Esquering-Georgetown Mutual Fire District Set-up

A special meeting of Georgetown Council was called last Thursday evening to meet with Esquering Council to discuss the proposed Esquering-Georgetown Fire Area further. Due to the municipal building being painted the meeting was held at Stewarttown Hall.

After considerable discussion the sum of $90 seemed all that was left between the two councils and the new fire set-up.

Esquering were paying the Milton Brigade $800 standby time, plus $50 per fire, and the same comparative figure was sought on an assessment basis. This would give Georgetown $400 as Milton district had a building assessment of $2,818,925 while the new area would only have an assessment of $1,361,904.

Georgetown Council argued that the number of villages in the area produced a greater fire hazard than probably the more highly assessed property around Milton, but Esquering council thought there was no other way to set the rate for stand-

THE WEATHER

Mr. Editor:-

What glorious weather we had to celebrate the 4th of July weekend.

It is always interesting to figure out the averages for the previous month and see how close to normal they come, especially when we get a few days exceedingly low or high as we did in June.

The average Maximum for June was 77, only two degrees above normal, and the average Minimum of 52 was exactly normal. The month was certainly dry with only 1.09 inches of rain, and the normal average for June is 2.80 inches. However, there may be a change this week, with the full of the moon.

Stay-at-Home Camp Begins on July 21st

July is here and Georgetown's girls and boys are asking questions about the 1952 Stay-at-Home Camp. Yes, there is to be a camp this summer and the dates are Monday, July 21st to Friday, August 1st. Two weeks packed full of fun for every Georgetown youngster from 6 to 16, and in addition two special afternoons for the pre-school children. See next week's Herald for a more detailed program and list of the classes, meeting places and instructions.

Certificates are to be presented to all who obtain a standing of 70% or more in camp participation. This includes attendance, conduct and achievement. Campers obtaining a mark of 90-100% will receive a certificate bearing a gold seal, campers obtaining 80-89% will receive a certificate bearing a blue seal. How many gold seal campers have we in Georgetown?

Parents and children of Georgetown are reminded that the financial obligations of the Stay-at-Home Camp are met by the Georgetown Lions Club who raised the fund by appeals to the public in such events as Peanut Day. The money is spent on such items as craft materials, transportation, prizes, instructors, honorariums, film rentals, etc. All of which are utilized for the promotion of a good camp and for the welfare and enjoyment of the children of Georgetown.

Don't forget to read more about the 1952 Stay-at-Home Camp in next week's issue of the Herald.

LILY MAY LAIDLAW DIES IN PEEL HOSPITAL

Daughter of the late John Laidlaw and Catherine Sinclair, Lily May Laidlaw died in Peel Memorial Hospital, Brampton, at the age of 72. The late Miss Laidlaw was born in Meadswale, spending most of her life there, coming to live with her sister, Mrs. W. May, 10th Line, Esquering, in 1938. ## LIMEHOUSE

DISTRICT CONVENER AT LIMEHOUSE W.I. MEET

The Ladies of Limehouse W.I. were delighted to welcome to their July meeting Mrs. M. Headhead, district convener of home economics and health and enjoyed her talk on that topic.

Mrs. V. Morris was also a welcome guest, having been the guest speaker at the June meeting while she was yet convener of His Research and Current Events. The meeting was held in Memorial Hall, presided over by Mrs. E. Sanford and opened with the hymn "Happy the Home When God is There" — followed by the Lord's Prayer in unison.

The roll call "How to postpone old age" was answered by 23 members, all with the one idea that "Worry" hastens old age.

Mrs. Frank Brown, convener, took over the programme. The Current Events were read by Mrs. Gisby, Dorothy McDonald gave a piano solo — O Canada, and two minute reports given by each convener.

Mrs. S. Kirkpatrick gave the motto "Laugh more, worry less, keep young and happy" which was a follow up of the roll call.

Ruth Brown and Kay Norton, members of the Homemaking Club displayed cotton dresses they had made as club work. Ruth Brown gave a talk on "Serving one vegetable five different ways." Kay Norton and Kathleen Kirkpatrick demonstrated the making of a salad — these demonstrations, etc., show what the girls learn in the Homemaking Club and it is over a pleasure to have the girls show their work. A great deal of thanks is due the leaders who spend so many hours preparing for these classes.

Ruth Brown, Kathleen Kirkpatrick and Kay Norton, members of the Homemaking Club and Dorothy McDonald, a member of the Garden Club were presented with silver.
