U.N. Opens Restaurant for Delegates, Staff

New York's first truly international restaurant, equipped to cater to a clientele numbering about 4,000 from over 60 countries, the United Nations cafeteria and delegates' dining room, opened recently at U.N. Headquarters. A vast and modern kitchen, covering some 9,000 square feet serves the cafeteria and dining room which are located on the fifth floor of the newly constructed Conference building overlooking the East River. Above is a partial view of the United Nations cafeteria which can accommodate about 400 persons.
