If you forget
On Saturday night,
The shops shut early,
Don't quarrel and fight —
Just call upon Mike
For dinner for two,
Or make it a dozen.
He LIKES to serve you
There's no need to worry
When cupboards are bare,
Mike's always enough.

LEGION MEMBERS Don't forget the second annual Legion picnic to be held in Stanley Park on Sunday, August 24th. Plenty of free refreshment tickets for the kiddies, plus two bottles to supply rides. Races with good prizes for young and old. Tea and coffee provided for the little ones. Buses will leave various sections of town for your convenience. Big challenge ball game between Scotty Patterson's pickup team from Legion members against the regular Legion team. This promises to be a great affair. Don't miss it! Full details next week and in monthly bulletin. Also keep in mind the War-torn Day special bus which will take members to the CNE Aug 23rd.

ACTON, DUNDAS LEAD LACROSSE LEAGUE

Acton B-Hives avenged a previous defeat when they beat Burlington in Saturday's game in Acton Arena. On Thursday at Streetsville they dropped a close game 6-5. Acton and Dundas are leading the lacrosse league. Acton have lost only three games in 17 played. Two scheduled games remain to be played at home. This Saturday Norfolk Brants will be in Acton and next Tuesday Dundas will be the opposition.

MACKENZIE NEWS

Have you been to the Park lately and seen the amount of work the men of the town have done? They have made a good start with a playground for our youngest citizens. With the help of all our Park could be made a place of beauty and usefulness for all ages. For those who still have sewage connections to make we have Transite asbestos pipe at 47¢ per foot. Complete with couplings in 10 ft. lengths. Bends and adapters vary from $1.25 to $3.00 each. 4" placed tile are 37¢ per foot and joints and junctions are from $1.40 to $2.60. See your plumber for details.

Domn Sisters Marry In Double Ceremony

Knox Presbyterian Church, R.R. 3, Durham, was decorated with snapdragons, gladioli and fern, August 2nd at 2:30 o'clock for the marriage of Geardine Selma, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Domn and Russell Thornton Miller, only son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Miller, R.R. 1, Georgetown, and their youngest daughter, Audriene Anne Domn to Ronald George Ortlieb, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Whitaker, Guelph. Given in marriage by their father, the brides wore identical strapless gowns fashioned with shirred net bodices and worn with all lace jackets which featured long Lily-pointed sleeves and mandarin collars. The skirts of alternate lace and net panels widened into full flowing chapel trains and their fingertip veils were held by net headpieces. Their bouquets were identical arrangements of white carnations with pink roses. Misses Dejene Ross and Roxey Whetnam of Mount Forest as bridesmaids wore identical gowns of yellow and green, respectively, velvety fashioned with simple moulded bodices and full skirts enhanced by an arrangement of tiers over the hip-line. They had matching net picture hats and bouquets of ivory carnations and white lily-of-the-valley. The groom wore Messrs. S. J. Hayward and Guelph and Messrs. Domn and Ortlieb.

Mr. Harold W. Johnson of Mount Forest played the wedding music and the organ was Mr. Gerald Gray, Lord of Aylor.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents. The bride's mother received in a Royal blue dress, white hat trimmed with Royal blue, white accessories and corsage of pale pink carnations. Mrs. Miller assisted in a grey sheer over tulle gown with a striking pink hat with matching corsage. Mrs. Whitaker was attired in a pale blue dress with matching hat and accessories and pale pink carnation corsage.

For a wedding trip to northern Ontario, Mrs. Miller changed to a grey tailored suit with matching red shoes and purse and white straw hat. Mr. and Mrs. Miller will reside at R.R. 1, Georgetown.

Mr. and Mrs. Ortlieb left on a wedding trip to the United States, the bride wearing a Kelly green suit and brown accessories and a tan straw hat. On their return they will reside in Guelph.

Guests attended from Brampton, Georgetown, Guelph, Mount Forest and Durham.

R. H. Turner Dies Suddenly at Tullamore

A Tullamore district farmer Richard Henry Turner 62, died suddenly on Friday morning at his home. Born in Toronto July 4, 1890, Mr. Turner was the son of Mr. and Mrs. David Turner.

Left to mourn the loss of a loved one is his wife for the past thirty six years, formerly Elsie Laurence of Toronto and six children: Elsie Turner, R.N. of New Liskeard; Laurence of Victoria; John of Mono Road; Ralph of Georgetown; Kathleen (Mrs. James Kirkpatrick) of Limehouse and Ronald at home and one brother, Edward of Ottawa.

Mr. Turner was a member of masonic lodges at Mimico and at Bolton, and was pastor of the former. On Sunday evening a masonic memorial service was held at his home.

Previously he had been a warden at Tullamore Anglican Church and was now a member of the Bolton church where the funeral was held with Rev. Houston conducting the service. Interment was in Laurel Hill Cemetery, Bolton. Pallbearers included Messrs. Robert Wood, Gordon Gooderham, Harold Taylor, Everett Holtby, R. Walton and Clement Leggett.

There were numerous floral tributes showing the high esteem in which Mr. Turner was held. These included: the staff of Red Cross Hospital, New Liskeard; Doctors of Red Cross Hospital at New Liskeard; members of Eastern Star at groups; Bolton Anglican Church groups; masonic lodges of Bolton; Bolton; Tullamore Anglican Church and Mimico; Hunting Club fellow members; Limehouse Women's Institute; Kathleen's neighbours at Limehouse and many others.

Mr. and Mrs. James Noble, Mr. and Mrs. John Noble and Michael and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fryer have just returned from a ten day holiday at Sauble Beach.

Local Men Form New Building Supply Firm

Combining the names of the towns where they will be doing business, two Georgetown men have formed a new firm, B&G Building Supplies.

Joe Prucyk and Ed Mallson, who are partners in the firm, have obtained the Armstrong property in Brampton on Beasley Street, just off No. 7 Highway, and will sell lumber and builders' supplies from their yard there. They also intend to stock some items at Mr. Prucyk's business premises in Georgetown. Later they plan to construct a show room in Brampton.

Mr. Prucyk worked for Thompson's Hardware before entering the plumbing and heating business on his own several years ago. He will continue to operate his business, which is known as Georgetown Plumbing and Heating. Mr. Mallson has been assistant for McNally Construction since coming here from Guelph three years ago.
