Attend Brother's Wedding
At Humboldt, Saskatchewan

Dr. John Kerby, Georgetown, was groomsman at his brother's wedding in Westminister United Church, Humboldt, Sask. on August 6th. Both Dr. Kerby and his brother, Dr. William Kerby graduated in dentistry from the University of Toronto in 1951.

Dr. Kerby married Doreen Margaret Ogilvie, only daughter of Dr. and Mrs. James Murray Ogilvie of Humboldt in a double ring ceremony solemnized by Rev. A. M. Logie. He is the elder son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen R. Kerby, Toronto.

The interior of the church was bright with flowers, silvered tea, sweet peas and gladioli being used in the setting. Twin candelabras were placed in the choir loft and a cross of white sweet peas on moss adorned the wall beyond.

The bride wore a formal gown of chantilly lace and nylon tulle. The fitted lace bodice with tiny puff sleeves and front buttoning, had a high neckline finished with a dainty peaked collar of the the same lace. The brilliant tulle skirt which had a scatter trim of diminutive super-posed lace rosettes with a single fly of the valley blossom centred in a full train. Sprigs of aly of the valley peeped through the folds of a fingertip petal point veil of silk illusion which was held in place by a Marie Stuart cap fashioned in nylon tulle. Elbow length mittens of Chantilly lace completed the costume of the bride who carried a white bible on which lay a spray of orchids and stephanotis.

Members of the bridal retinue were attired in gowns identical in design but differing in hue, the fabric being a lion marquisette with a sprinkle of minute silver stars. Sleeveless bodices were distinguished at the neck by a little winged collar and at the yoke-line by a deep tack this motif being repeated in the full gathered skirts. The maid of honour, Miss Eleanor Robertson, Stouffville, Nova Scotia was gown-ed in mauve and wore a coronet of nylon tulle with matching veil. Matron of honour, Mrs. Beate Ogilvie of Humboldt, appeared in blue wearing a scalloped halo head-piece of nylon tulle with pearl trim. Matching hairpieces of identical design were worn by brides attendants. Mrs. John Kerby, Georgetown was dressed in pastel green and her bridesmaid, Miss Sylvia Magee, Toronto, wore pale yellow. Each member of the bridal party carried a small nosegay of tulle trimmed with a spray of split pink carnations and ribbons to match her gown. The bride and bridesmaids are all graduates in Home Economics from the University of Toronto class of 1950 and of education in 1951.

Ushers were Jim Ogilvie and Larry Stebbings, Humboldt and Don Milliken, Calgary. Mrs. L. R. C. Batten was soloist, and as the bridal couple knelt to receive the wedding blessing she sang "Wedding Prayer" and during the signing of the register "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. A. M. Logie played the organ. Three hundred guests attended.

the reception in the Legion Hall. The bride's mother wore a floor length gown of steel blue crepe, pink straw cloche trimmed with brilliants and veiling, pink accessories and pink rose corsage. The groom's mother wore coffee lace over pink nylon, pink tulle head-piece and pink rose corsage.

The bride chose as her going-away outfit a suit of pale aqua-marine wool bengaline complemented by a cloche of pink bird of paradise feathers and a corsage of pink carnations. The accompanying top coat was in oyster colored wool with pink and aqua fleck. Dr. and Mrs. Kerby left for a honeymoon trip to the Grand Canyon, Colorado and the west coast and will take up residence in Humboldt after their return.

FARM NEWS

NEW LOCATION FOR JRS. AT COUNTY FAIR

President Mac Sprawl of the Halton Juniors and his special committee are out to make the Special Junior Section at the Milton Fair the best on record. It will be recalled by some that the interclub (educational displays a year ago were housed in the old cattle barn back of the midway. Unfortunately many of those who are interested in the Juniors failed to find the hall in question. Those who did were very much impressed by the club exhibits erected by the Junior Homemakers, the Girls' Garden Clubs, the Junior Institutes and the Junior Farmers. This year an effort is being made to have all the Junior exhibits in one section of the grounds. To this end a special tent will be erected alongside of the 4H Calf Club display near the cat-rings. Judging by the interest to date, our readers will be well repaid by a visit to this special section.
