THIS FARM WAS BLACK... NOW BROWN

The farm pictured above which appeared in Lucky Farmer Photo Quiz on July 30th, is on Lot 14, Con. 4 in the heart of the Scotch Block and is presently owned by Harry R. Brown and Sons. It was formerly in the Black family for over a century.

It was purchased from the Crown by Walter Craig on June 26, 1826. In the same year, Hugh Black the surveyor became the owner. Through the years it passed from Hugh Black to a son George W.

Black and on to a grandson Hugh Black.

Hugh Black was an outstanding Jersey farmer and a good citizen. He is survived by his wife, Clara Street, Georgetown, a daughter, Margaret (Mrs. Aryle Campbell) and a sister, Mrs. George Hender.

In 1941 it was purchased by Harry R. Brown and Sons, and thus the farm came under the Dunstons to Mountain Scene Farms. George W. Black once said that there wasn't much difference between a dark Brown and a Black.

Harry R. Brown is a descendant of Alexander Brown who as history relates was the Grenadier soldier who picked up Wolfe when he fell on the Plains of Abraham. He went to Pennsylvania. From there he came to Welland, Ontario as an Empire Loyalist. In 1821 a son, Alexander, and a grandson, James, came to Esquimaux and settled on Lot 19, Concession 5, until his death in 1876. James' son, John Kerr Brown, also lived here until his death in 1918. He was the father of Harry R. Brown and Fred J. Brown. The son of Fred J., Fred J. Jr., still lives on this farm. Harry

R. Brown lived at Lot 11, Con. 4, until he moved to Lot 14, Con. 4 in 1941.

Mrs. Harry R. Brown nee Agnes Davidson lived at Mount Pleasant, Manitowish. Her mother was Elizabeth Meredith of Lambton.

Harry R. Brown's family consists of Margaret (Mrs. Harold Barber), Harold E., Robert J., James W. and Theodora. Margaret taught school for ten years and is now living on Lot 14, Con. 4. She has a son, Robert Harold, is married to Laine Jones and has two children, Lillian and Harry R. Jr. Both also live with them on Lot 14, Con. 4, the family home. Both attended Georgetown High School. Jim lives on the above pictured farm with his parents and Theodora. He also attended Georgetown High School and will be the next owner of this farm. Theodora is in Grade 11 in Milton High School. Both Jim and Theodora are interested in Junior Farmer work.

Harry R. Brown is the secretary-treasurer of Lambton school. Mrs. Brown is a member of Lambton W.I. The sons all work together on the Mountain Scene Farms.

Story of Samson Told at St. John's

The first three Sundays of August, the members of St. John's United Church worshipped with the Presbyterians in Knox Church last Sunday morning. The members of Knox worshipped in St. John's the guest minister being the Rev. Fred Ashgrove, formerly of Ashgrove and Hornby circuit. His Scripture lesson was Paul's letter to the Romans, Chapter 1, beseeching holiness in living and giving many practical duties which go to make full Christian lives. He took as his subject the story of Samson's life and the lessons we should take from it. He showed how Samson had been born for a great purpose, and had seen a vision of that purpose, to deliver Israel out of the hands of the Philistines for God, and that Samson had been given great strength from his birth by God, for his task. He was to be a Nazirite unto God, taking the vow never to drink wine or strong drink, to live a clean life, and never to have his hair cut off supposedly in those days, adding to his strength. Unfortunately Samson, like so many young people of today and even many not so young, forgot that his strength and prowess was God given, and came to believe that it was of himself, that he could do what he liked with it, and that even if somewhat abused and his vows neglected, he could still have his great possession, and it would last for ever. Nor would he listen to the advice of his parents, but went ahead tampering with his vows of temperance, and clean living, even though keeping his vision of defeating the Philistines, but seeking to do it in his own way, rather than listen for God's way, and so provoking them to greater hatred, anger and reprisals against himself and the children of Israel. Finally when he had succumbed to a damsel's whim and treachery, and given her and his enemies the opportunity to shave off his locks, thus breaking another vow, the Lord left him, his great strength was gone, the Philistines were easily able to subdue him, his eyes were taken out, and he was made to grind corn for his masters. In a prison with any strength he may have had left, his life vision gone, as well as earthly sight. However, his hair started to grow again, and when he later was taken to make sport for the people at one of their festivals where many were gathered, he asked the lad who was leading him to let him feel the pillars of the house with his hands that he might lean against them, for he was weary. Samson uttered a great prayer to God for strength, and expressed his willingness to die with the Philistines, and then bowed himself with all his might so that the two central pillars buckled, the roof and house came down, so that the dead which he slew at his death, were more than they which he slew in his life. Surely if he had listened to God's way, his

ASHGROVE Girls Provide Program At Ashgrove W.I. Meet

The August W.I. meeting was held on Tuesday, August 9th at the home of Mrs. George Wingfield with a splendid attendance of ladies and young girls. The president, Mrs. Leslie Gillen couldn't attend and the 1st vice, Mrs. W. Stringer conducted the meeting. Roll call was answered by "A colour scheme in a bedroom." The meeting was turned over to Margaret Bird who called on Marion Bird for the motto "Your future is what you make it." Joan Wrigglesworth of Hornby told of her bus trip down through the States that she, with thirty Junior Farmers had won on Achievement Day. A flower arranging demonstration was given by Mrs. John Milton who showed many different ways to arrange a bouquet of flowers and said the best time to pick flowers is early morning or evening and put them in a pail of water directly before arranging. Also always cut them on an angle with a knife as they stay fresh longer. A contest by Mae Wingfield "Guess Who" caused lots of amusement and the meeting closed with the girls serving refreshments.

Mrs. and Mrs. Hector Bird with Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hutchinson of Cheltenham have been on a motor trip to the west coast.

Mr. and Mrs. James Carney holidayed for a few days last week at Ott Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Kirby and Teddy have returned from a holiday at Wasaga Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Brownridge and daughter Margaret motored to Kirkland Lake over the week-end to visit Mr. and Mrs. Hartley Anderson, Peter and Virginia.

Gordon Wrigglesworth and Elvera Barnes of Milton are visiting their cousins Ann and Fred Barnes.

The Young People took the service on Sunday morning with president Gordon Wingfield presiding. The choir sang two numbers "Sing Unto the Lord" and "Waiting On Jesus". Mr. Stanley Turner of Hornby addressed on "Hidden Among the Stuff." Scripture reading by Norman Bird.

vision could have been realized in some better way, and his prowess used to lift rather than destroy. The lessons to be learned: 1. If you have a vision, young people, stay with it truly, but not just in your own strength and way. 2. Take marriage seriously and as a sacred rite. 3. See if God hasn't some other way than arms and might, to confront, maybe confound, maybe win, our enemies; might so often hurting innocent ones.

If you put stones where boys are, they are almost sure to throw them. If you give a boy an airgun and ammunition, be sure he will shoot.

Marilyn Sputher sang "The Lord Is My Shepherd." Next Sunday, Knox will again worship in St. John's, with Rev. Lloyd Stapleton, Streetsville as guest minister.
