W.M.S. MEETING AT MRS. WARNE'S HOME

The W.M.S. met for their August meeting at the home of Mrs. R. Warne. The worship service was led by Mrs. F. Smith, the theme being "Life is a trust that tests us." We are not here to play, to dream, to drift.

We have hard work to do and loads to lift. Shun not the struggle, face it—'tis God's gift."

During the business period plans were made to hold a Sunday evening service later in September. Books read and visits made during the past month were recorded. A temperance item was read by Mrs. Jesse McEnery. The topic on Christian Stewardship was given by Mrs. J. Kirkwood stressing that stewardship means all of life, time, talent, money, personality, etc. are to be used in helping to bring in the kingdom of God. Jesus is the Interpreter of God and Life. Through His teaching and through His life we see the character of God and what life ought to be. Jesus was reverent, patient, humble and loyal. The all inclusive motive in his life was love. Mrs. F. Smith led in the prayer period and the meeting closed with the Mizpah benediction.

Mr. and Mrs. John May of Markdale were week-end visitors with the Ferguson's.

Shirley Kirkwood spent last week with her cousins, Ross and Laurie Sinclair at Milton. Muriel Hills and Mrs. J. Kirkwood entertained the members of their Sunday School classes at a picnic at Stanley Park Wednesday afternoon.

A presentation was held in the hall Tuesday evening for Mr. and Mrs. Sam Snow a recent bride and groom. They were presented with an electric washing machine and other individual gifts. The evening was spent in dancing, after which refreshments were served.

We welcome our new teacher, Mrs. R. Shortill, to Blue Mountain School. There are five new beginners this year. Mary Baker, Heather Gates, Gary Allan, Gary Snow, and Sharon Allan.

The Baby Band met for their annual picnic meeting at the home of the leader, Mrs. N. Sinclair on Thursday afternoon. Mrs. F. W. Shortill gave a short talk and several stories were told to the children. Two promotions were made to the Mission Band. Snap shots were taken of the group and games enjoyed by the children. Lunch was served to all.

A SAILOR'S ADVENTURE
"I've sailed the ocean," he told us,
"Many years in the mercantile fleet,
But strange, my biggest adventure,
Happened where four streets meet."

"Dead ahead a transport
Came with a lurch and sway,
Aster, an army convoy
Prevented escape that way."

"To leeward a bulldozer threatened,
A menace forbidding and grim,
And down from windward there floated

A phantom in chromium trim."
"The watch at the helm of the
phantom,
A time chased, but fearless youth,
Was steering a course to the hor'land

But came about and bore south."
"The watch in the transport's
wheelhouse,
Spun the helm from starboard to
port,
And he chanted a blistering lingo,
That consigned every dope to
New York."

"The ponderous hull of the transport
Screamed along its length,
But it missed the chromium
phantom,
Just by a bare hand-breadth,"

"An airplane floated above me,
I looked for a loophole in vain,
So I dived through a hatch in the roadway,
Just missing a subway train."

"Your streets seem rivers uncharted,
Channels of terror to me,
Where everyone goes where they're looking,
Give e the old gray sea."

MAIDEN VOYAGE SALUTE TO CANADA... A pretty Netherlander in authentic Dutch costume waves happily as the new pride of the Holland-America Line, S.S. Maandam steams under the Jacques Cartier Bridge in Montreal Harbor on her maiden voyage from Rotterdam. The first foreign passenger ship ever to make a maiden voyage to this country, the Maandam is paying tribute to Canada for the part played by Canadian Forces in the liberation of Holland and to acknowledge the friendly reception shown by this country to thousands of Netherlanders who have emigrated here. The sleek 503 foot, 15,024 gross ton vessel is designed to cater almost exclusively to tourist-class travellers and affords here with a capacity list of 881 passengers.
