Two Ministers Speak At Church Anniversary

Anniversary Sunday was blessed by lovely clear fall weather. The church was beautifully decorated with baskets of gladioli and other cut flowers which provided a lovely setting for the services. Rev. J.
B. Moore of Waterdown, was guest speaker for the morning service and addressed the thought that the church should be made the centre of community life. Each one of us, though we be ten talent or one talent, have a duty to fulfill which no one else can do. Let us make sure our part is not left undone. Solos by Mrs.
Kirby Williams and the anthem by the choir added to the service. In the evening Rev. E. A. Currey was in charge and the background for his sermon was the scripture reference to the tower of Babel. Mr.
Currey made quite clear that if we take things in our own hands, leaving God out, our life will come to naught. Let us take God with us into whatever profession we choose to follow. Even if God does not call us to full time service we may be sure He expects us to give part-time in Christian work, or leadership. The choir again sang and two numbers by the Milton Male Quartet were much enjoyed. There were capacity congregations both morning and evening.

HEART ATTACK FATAL FOR NORVAL BARBER

For four years operator of a barber shop at Norval, James Henry Littleton, 70, died suddenly at Peel Memorial Hospital Wednesday after suffering a heart attack. For many years he operated a barbering business in Brampton.

Recognized as one of the best indoor bowlers in Brampton, he captained a team which won the men's town championship in 1951.
Born at Kye, Durham County, England, he came to Canada with his wife, who predeceased him nine years ago.

He is survived by one son, William. Another son, Cecil, died in 1945.

Interment was made in Brampton Cemetery after the funeral service on Friday, at which Rev. R. H.
N. Davidson officiated. Members of Mr. Littleton's bowling team were present at the funeral.

First War Veteran Local Lady's Father

Father of a Georgetown resident, John Hanson died at his residence, 179 John St., Brampton last Tuesday. A native of Bury St. Edmunds, he was in his 67th year.

A gardener by occupation, he settled in Brampton on his arrival from England in 1900. He served in France with the 112th battalion and was wounded in 1918. He was a member of Grace United Church and the Brampton branch of the Canadian Legion.

He leaves his wife, Annie Wild, three daughters Mrs. Harold Parker, Brampton, Mrs. Bruce Harley, Georgetown and Mrs. Elmer Denny, Acton, and three sons, Malcolm, Allan and David. He also leaves two brothers Arthur and George Hanson, Brampton.

Rev. R. H. N. Davidson conducted the funeral service on Thursday at the chapel of the McClure Funeral Home, Brampton, and interment took place in Brampton Cemtery.
