Cheltenham Friends Fete
Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lyons
Prior to moving to Georgetown, when they purchased the home on Wesleyan Street from Mr. and Mrs. John Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. William Lyons were entertained at a farewell party in the hall by their Cheltenham friends. Mr. Herbert Taylor was chairman for the evening and a short program was given by Misses Betty and Anna Mae Hutchinson, piano duet; Miss Mary Henderson, humorous reading, and Miss Jean Newhouse, solos.
Mr. and Mrs. Lyons were invited to come forward. Mr. Henry Carnwell, Jr. on behalf of the WMS of the United Church, presented Mrs. Lyons with a gift. The chairman then called upon Mr. Andrew Henderson, who read the following address. Presentation of the gifts, a floor lamp and radio, was made by Arthur Hutchinson and Elmore Newhouse. Mr. and Mrs. Lyons made reply in both humorous and feeling vein, after which several of the neighbours expressed the feelings of all, regret at their departure. Singing of the National Anthem and lunch brought this friendly gathering to a close.
The following is the address tendered:
To Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lyons:
Dear Friends:
At this time when you are taking leave of us to establish your home in Georgetown we wish to express our regret at losing you from our community and our satisfaction that you have now laid down the burdens and responsibilities of your farm so that your evening years may be a time of leisure.
You, Mrs. Lyons, were so well and pleasurably known to many of us during your childhood and young womanhood that your coming to Cheltenham at the time of your marriage was merely an enlargement of your friendship circle. You brought with you the kindly good humor, the witty tongue and the shrewd, gentle criticisms for which you were already noted and which have brightened many of our gatherings even to the point of being the life of the party. We hope that we may again enjoy your company frequently as you and William revisit us.
For you, William, it is the severance of life-long associations. A few of us (very few remaining now) were your school mates, remembering across a span of many years what a vigorous, hardy, jolly and good-natured playmate you were. As a man grown you were noted as a sturdy worker, ready and able, who always could be counted on to do your full share of whatever was in hand to be done, and also as an agreeable neighbor, one who could be called upon for help in any emergency. We hope that your remaining years may be many and pleasant and that you and Annie may be able to come over to Cheltenham very often. A warm welcome will await you.

We ask you to accept a gift as a reminder of our days together.
"God be with you till we meet again."
Signed on behalf of the community — Herbert J. W. Taylor, Andrew Henderson, Elmore Newhouse, Arthur Hutchinson.

French City Improves Milk Supply With U.N. Aid

As part of its milk conservation program the United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund (UNICEF), has supplied dried milk, bottling and pasteurizing equipment to several countries in Europe and the Middle East. Soissons was the first French city to make compulsory the bottling of milk sold at retail, and has been provided with a bottling machine by UNICEF. At the right, milk newly arrived from a Soissons farm is dumped into the pasteurizer, while the manager of the dairy M. Guerland (left) samples milk from a bottle which was filled on the machine furnished to the city by the United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund.
