Four Attendants at Steeds-Taylor Wedding

On Saturday at three o'clock in Home United Church, the marriage took place of Doris Alberta Taylor, Reg. N. and Raymond Oliver Steeds son of Mrs. Arthur Steeds of Toronto and the late Mr. Steeds. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. William Taylor, R. R. 2, Brampton and the late Mr. Taylor.

Rev. C. C. Gilbert officiated, with a former minister of Home Church, Rev. Alex Cowan, of Oshawa assisting. Ann MacLutichinson was organist and Mrs. John McClure, Georgetown, sang The Lord's Prayer before the ceremony and through the years while the register was being signed. The bride's uncle, William Robertson, Arthur, gave her in marriage.

The wedding gown was of slipper satin with double net overskirt, lace bodice and sleeves of nylon net embroidered with seed pearls at the neckline. She wore a fingertip veil and carried a shower bouquet of roses and white chrysanthemums.

Four attendants were gowned alike in floor length, off-the-shoulder gowns with bertha collars. Dutch bonnets and matching mittens. The maid of honour, Ellen Fuller, Reg. N., Norval was in rose, the bridesmaid, Doreen O'Neill, Reg. N. Toronto in aqua. Junior bridesmaid, Joan Robertson Arthur, the bride's cousin in yellow, and flower girl, Janice Mino, Georgetown, in yellow. The senior attendants had nosegays of mums and the flower girl carried a basket of gold mums and yellow roses.

Wilfred Mino, Georgetown, the groom's cousin, was best man. Ushers were William J. Taylor, the bride's brother and William McGowan, Glen Williams, the groom's cousin.

Receiving in the church parlours, Mrs. Taylor wore a floor length gown of grey crepe and lace grey hat and corsage of Sweetheart roses. Mrs. Steeds wore floor length robin egg blue tulle, feather hat and pink rose corsage.

Leaving on a northern Ontario honeymoon trip the bride wore a grey suit, red accessories and corsage of red gladioli petals. They will live in Toronto. Guests attended the wedding from Georgetown, Norval, Acton, Brampton and Arthur.

Georgetown Soldier Leaves for Far East

Another Georgetown soldier is enroute to the Far East. The Harold Henderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Henderson, of Normandy Boulevard sailed a week ago from Washington with a detachment of Canadian troops bound for Japan or Korea.

A second member of the Henderson family has joined the armed forces. Harold's younger brother, Roy left Saturday for the east coast where he will be stationed for navy training at HMCS Cornwallis.

Benefit Game Raises Funds for Ross McGill

Planned by his teammates, a benefit baseball game was played last Thursday between Georgetown Midgets and Acton. A good sum of money was raised and this will be presented to Ross McGill on his return from hospital at Little Current later this month where he is hospitalized with a broken pelvis suffered in an accident.

Ron Ritchie started on the mound for Georgetown and was relieved by Jim Timleck in the 3rd when Acton was leading 4-1. The locals got two runs in the 3rd and Acton came back with two in the fourth. Georgetown exploded in the next inning and collected the rest of their runs to win 8-6. The game was called on account of darkness.

Cunningham pitched for Acton and there were quite a few errors on the part of both teams. The game was umpired by Leigh Bradbury.

TERRA COTTA LADIES SELLING COOK BOOKS

A special feature at Georgetown Fair on Saturday will be the sale of cook books by Terra Cotta Women's Institute in connection with their exhibit.

The ladies have recently had printed a convenient pocket size recipe book 'Favourite Supper Dishes' containing 38 recipes submitted by members of the Institute. Price of the booklet is 25c and those who know the cooking reputation of the Terra Cotta ladies will want to learn some of their secrets.

MACKENZIE NEWS

We have the new Sandran Vinyl plastic counter topping. It is 27 inches wide and you can get the length you need at a cost of 80c per running foot or 40c per sq. ft. Topping for a cupboard 8 ft. long would cost $4.80.

Sandran cleans off with a damp cloth, is heat and stain resistant and easy to install. See you at Georgetown Fair. Remember the Blind and buy a tag.
