SILVER-WOOD REV. ALEX CALDER INSTITUTE SPEAKER

Rev. Alex Calder told the ladies of Silver-Wood Institute about Linnaeus, a clever 18th century naturalist, when he was guest speaker at their meeting Thursday, at the home of Mrs. A. W. Norton.

Self-taught, Carolus Linnaeus rose to be a professor in Uppsala University in Sweden and we have him to thank today for the knowledge of plant and animal life of practically the whole world.

Miss Isabel Moore expressed the enjoyment of the ladies in having Mr. Calder speak when she thanked Mr. Calder on behalf of the group.

Mrs. E. I. Miller presided at the meeting which was attended by 19 members, two guests and three children. Members named a cabinet minister for roll call. Mrs. J. Snow and Mrs. Miller as delegates, and a number of other members, are planning to attend the convention in Kitchener next month. Mrs. Horace Bell reported that 35 exhibits had been entered at the Glen Williams fair and the Institute won 29 prizes. Entries for Georgetown and Acton fair were discussed.

Miss Moore was in charge of the meeting, which was devoted to citizenship and education. Mrs. R. R. Corbett read General McArthur's creed, which is beautifully worded. Interesting current events were given by Mrs. Appleyard, which included Stone School reopened with three new pupils, and looks fresh with a new coat of paint. With the CNE over, the small fairs are in full swing and the Institute is busy with exhibits. Garry Snow, son of one of the members, had the misfortune to fracture his leg. Mr. Jennings of Ballinacraig was drawing hay home Monday evening when a truck following him turned out to pass, was blinded by oncoming lights and crashed into his wagon, upsetting the hay and turning his truck over. Misses Rowena and Wilma Stull had a pleasant motor trip to the west coast this summer. Miss Rowena Stull is teaching at Cooksville this year. Mr. and Mrs. Vary and Aileen spent the week-end in Harrison and attended a presentation for Mrs. Vary's niece, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Miller are moving to Georgetown Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Nathan spent a few days at the Appleyard home and Mrs. Graham of Galt is visiting with her sister, Mrs. P. Miller.
