Thimble Club Gives Draw Proceeds to Hall

At a euchre party in the Hall on Friday night, the Thimble Club presented the proceeds of their annual bazaar draw to the community hall. It was accepted by secretary-treasurer Norman Iram who thanked the ladies and their president, Mrs. Harvey Puckering. Prizes at cards were won by Gordon Sheppard and Mrs. Vickers, and seconds by George Lowin and Mrs. Bryden, Georgetown.

Congratulations to Jane Anne Emmerston who was a prize baby at Georgetown Fair on Saturday.

Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Gordon Stringer, whose mother Mrs. John Sloan died at Brampton on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bailey of Toronto were week-end visitors with the Emmersons.

THIEVES STEAL $425 FROM BOWERS GARAGE

Thieves who entered Bowers Motor Sales in the early hours of Monday morning and stole $425 from an unlocked safe are being sought by the local Provincial Police.

In Magistrate's Court this morning, a district man was given suspended sentence on a charge of damage to property and ordered to make restitution of $65 in estimated damage to an apartment to which he forced entry. He was also fined $10 and costs on a charge of illegal possession of liquor. A similar fine was given to another man on a liquor charge.

Another Georgetown man will appear in Milton court next Wednesday, charged with stealing articles from parked cars. Money and jewellery, all later recovered, were taken from cars of wedding guests at the Muckart-Brown wedding.

Reinhardt Christening At St. George's Sunday

Sunday afternoon in St. George's Anglican Church, a christening service was held for Mary Catharine Reinhardt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Reinhardt of Warton. Archdeacon W. G. O. Thompson officiated and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Harding were godparents.

Mrs. Reinhardt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Moyer entertained at a garden tea afterwards for a number of local and out of town guests who included the baby's paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Reinhardt, Hanover. Others present included Mr. David Reinhardt, St. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Moyer and Mr. Melvin Moyer, Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Beatty, Acton, Mr. and Mrs. J. Milton Cork, Toronto, who are Mary Catharine's great-great uncle and aunt, Archdeacon and Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. J. H. Chamberlain, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Bradley, Miss Judy McLaughlin, Miss Julia DeVries and Mr. and Mrs. D. R. McLaughlin.
