THE MAIL BAG

AGAINST DAYLIGHT SAVING TIME

Dear Mr. Editor:

Like others who have recently commented in your column with reference to the impending installation of daylight saving, I wish to express my distaste for this "Daylight Silly Time" and for the ignominious manner in which it is forced on the many by the few year after year without a vote.

Man may change clocks back and forth, but the rising and setting of the sun is beyond his control.

Aside from the confusion encountered in travelling, and the heartbroken child who is sent to bed while the sun is still shining, I most strongly protest on the grounds that a vote in town would end the whole silly idea.

Office workers are the only ones who are happy about it, so why not let them get up one hour earlier. They would still have one hour's more rest than the workers. I hope in the near future a plebiscite will be taken to ascertain the wishes of the public in this matter.

A RATEPAYER.

Maude Larner and three daughters, Mrs. A. Tyler, Mrs. W. L. Toed and Mrs. Hale.

The funeral service was held in Holy Rosary Church, Toronto last Tuesday with interment following in St. Hope Cemetery.
