Bishop Dedicates Gifts Centennial Highlight

A series of five special services marking the centennial of St. George's Anglican Church concluded on Sunday when the Rt. Rev. Walter Bagnall, Bishop of Niagara, dedicated a number of gifts to the church.

RT. REV. WALTER BAGNALL.

Godfrey, his wife Ellen McKay and their eleven children, altar vases, a gift of Mr. Harold Huston, a pair of crucets, from the Daughters of the Church, and altar linen, the gift of three church ladies. Dedication of a new oak reredos, in memory of the Huston family, has been delayed to a later date, as it could not be installed on schedule.

Bishop Bagnall spoke forcefully on the theme "A thousand years in Thy sight are as a day." He told of civilizations which had been all-powerful in their time and had crumbled when they forgot God and urged a keener awareness of religious matters in present day life. The Bishop officiated at the communion. In the evening, Canon Arthur McColligan of York Mills, a Georgetown "old boy" preached, and met members of the congregation at a social hour which followed in the church basement. This was the custom at each of the five evening services, members of the W.A. serving tea.

Apple Day was a grand success. Things started well with the shining bee on Thursday evening. On Friday baskets were presented for judging and the judges selected the following winners: Cub Class, 1st, Gary Renwick; 2nd, Kent Hiddall; 3rd, Les Tucker, Scout Class 1st, Ross McGillivray; 2nd, Kerry Jepson; 3rd, Paul Marshall.

The total receipts for the day were $290.05. This will leave a nice balance for the fund after expenses are paid. Scout W. Vivian sold the most apples and added $27.10 to the fund. Scout David Jones was still on the job at almost six o'clock and was around when the man with the German coin walked by. Earlier in the day John Cummins met up with the man with the Japanese coin.

The appreciation of the committee is extended to all who in any way contributed to the success of the day. There are many who deserve thanks and to one and all we say "THANK YOU" on behalf of Scouting.
