Saturday Opener Teams Raiders with Newmarket

Graham Porter
The Raiders will make their first appearance of the season with home and home exhibition games against Newmarket Intermediate A Club. Both games will be played this week. In Newmarket on Thursday night, back here for a game on Saturday night.

Knowing the Newmarket Club as we do, we are assured of fine exhibition hockey. Game starts at 8:30. The Raiders are still working hard in the practice sessions. 'Pinky' Lewis is not letting up in his drive to get the boys in shape and is looking forward to the coming exhibition games. It will give him an idea to what extent his coaching has brought the team along, also give him a chance to see the Raiders work as a team. The Dillon received a cut over his left eye from a stick. Fred Lawrence visited the doctor about his knee which is giving him some trouble. Fred tells us it should be alright so long as he keeps it bandaged for support. Rene Martin has a bruised hip — told us Scotty fell on him in practice. Tut, tut, Scotty! Friday night being Halloween, there were a few boys missing from practice, could be they were scared of the witches or were they knocking on the door for shellouts? Oh well, boys will be boys

COMMUTERS PLAY SUNDAY

With a couple of good work-outs, Avro Commuters are set for their first game Sunday at 4:30 in Brampton Arena against the Athletics, another house league team.

This team has created a lot of interest for local Avro workers and a good crowd is expected for the opening. Money for sweaters is being raised by a lucky draw and response to date has been encouraging.
