HORNBY

Bazaar First Function In New Parish Hall

The first bazaar held by the Ladies' Guild and the Women's Auxiliary of St. Stephen's Church, Hornby, on November 8th was exceedingly well attended, some of the former members and friends of the church coming from Guelph, Georgetown, Burlington, Milton, Brampton and Toronto.

At 2:30 o'clock the rector, Rev. J. E. Maxwell, offered prayer followed by the Lord's Prayer in which all joined. The bazaar was then declared open.

Long tables arranged around the walls were laden with a wide assortment of garments, novelties, flower plants and home-made baking. In spite of the quantities the demand in some things exceeded the supply. At the east end of the new Parish Hall were several small tables laid with attractive tea cloths and tastefully decorated with bouquets of small chrysanthemums and a large white basket filled with various coloured chrysanthemums forming a background. Afternoon tea was served here and many friends, who had not seen one another for a long time, chatted together. Among those attending were Archdeacon and Mrs. W. G. O. Thompson of Georgetown.

The occasion was a very friendly and heart-warming one, and the ladies were pleased with the success of their first bazaar.
