On October 18th, Freida Irene Ann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Gautby of Toronto and formerly of Brampton, became the bride of Gordon Lloyd Bastedo, son of Mrs. and the late E. L. Bastedo, also of Toronto and formerly of Brampton and Norval, in Grace United Church, Brampton. The church was attractively decorated with yellow and white chrysanthemums, ferns and palms. Rev. R. H. N. Davidson conducted the ceremony. Miss J. Milner was at the organ and Mr. William O'Hearn was the soloist.

Her Alencon lace jacket was styled with stand-up collar and dolman sleeves. From a coronet of orange blossoms fell a fingertip tulle illusion veil. Her cascade bouquet was of white orchids, poms and stephanotis.

The matron of honour was Mrs. William Hodgson, sister of the bride. Her strapless gown was of cinnamon nylon net over taffeta, cut to ballerina length and worn with matching net jacket and feather hat. The bridesmaids, Mrs. Dorothy McKatg and Miss Shirley Ward, wore gowns similar to that of the matron of honour but in deep turquoise. All carried star shaped bouquets of yellow and bronze poms.

The flower girls were Judy and Connie Bastedo, young sisters of the groom. They wore deep turquoise ballerina length gowns with round neckline and full skirts. They both carried miniature star shaped bouquets of yellow and bronze poms.
