MAYOR A CANDIDATE

"I'm seeking a second term of office" said Mayor Armstrong at Monday's council meeting, announcing his decision to run for mayor again this year.

only solution for the area and that septic tanks will not work in that soil. Mayor Armstrong, announcing that he would vote against the motion, said he favoured the deferred plan because it would get the job done faster and it had obviously been put on the statute books for just such situations.

Discussion with county engineer Roy Smith who engineered the recent road paving program, proved that the roads were of the same construction and would stand up equally well with previously paved roads. Mr. Smith said the road surface is not as smooth as he wanted it, but was as smooth as it could be for being laid in the late fall.

"Don't lay any more asphalt pavement in October," was his advice.

Mr. Smith had been asked to attend the meeting when some councillors told of complaints that the roads were rough.

"I have trouble convincing people that the roads are finished" said Cr. Allen, asking what will happen in the spring if the sealer coat does not even out as promised.

Mr. Smith said that the warm weather will smooth down the pavement, but not to the same extent as if the asphalt had been laid in the summer time. As the work was done under Local Improvement, it had to be kept to a strict budget, he said, and there were places where some improvements might have been made by spending more money, but this was impossible under the form of financing.

Mr. Smith was asked to check a few points which might be cleared up, including a drainage problem on Market Street between Mill and Wesleyan.

Queried by Cr. Goodlet on what chance there would be of saving the county connecting link which runs from the Maple-Charles corner to Main, then up to Knox Church, Mr. Smith's advice was to get a request in to him early in January and it would be considered by the county road committee. He warned, however, that he expected a flood of similar requests and could not guarantee that Georgetown would have any satisfaction in 1953.

"There are only fifteen female dogs in town" said dog tax collector W. O. Brownridge, according to his statistics.

A total of 188 tags had been sold by him and 94 by town clerk Willson, all of the $2 variety except for 15 people who admitted owning female dogs.

Mr. Brownridge had visited some homes as many as seven times and reported nine dog owners still delinquent. Council instructed him to turn over his list to the police for further action.

The property committee said they could not recommend selling a portion of Edith Street to Frank Whitmee, as he had suggested because it would cut off an entrance to one property.

The need for a new town truck was pointed out by Cr. Allen, who said he didn't think the present truck could get through the winter's snow plowing. No discussion took place on this.

A new sidewalk will be laid on Queen Street to replace a broken section around the McNabb St. corner if it can be done this fall. The 200 feet will cost approximately $400. Minor patching jobs in several parts of town were ordered also.

Mayor Armstrong reported that a firm last week expressed an interest in locating in Georgetown and talked of a 100,000 square foot building. Representatives are expected to look over possible sites at a later date.

QUIET SPOT TO REST

When a respected citizen passed away recently, his friends followed him out to the cemetery, a mile outside the town. Among the mourners was a palsied patriarch, tottering on a cane. A neighbour inquired: "How old are you, Gramp?" "Eighty-seven," the old man croaked.

The neighbour shook his head thoughtfully. "Don't hardly pay you to go back to town." — The Reader's Digest.

ASHGROVE

MRS. SKUCE SPEAKER TO INSTITUTE LADIES

The Women's Institute meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Frank Barnes on Tuesday afternoon, November 18th with the president, Mrs. Leslie Giffen in charge. As the secretary, Mrs. Vern Archer couldn't be present, Mrs. Bob Alexander acted in her place. Roll Call was answered by "One Step I Can Make toward World Peace" and most ladies were in favour of talk peace at home and less war. Mrs. Lloyd Sweezy and Mrs. H. Cunningham were appointed to look after a quilt for Greece and four other ladies to arrange a fancy one for the Countrywomen of the World to be ready next summer. Mrs. Milton Bird had the motto "If you don't stand for something you fall for anything." Two solos by Mrs. Francis Thompson were followed by the guest speaker, Mrs. L. L. Skuce, who spoke on her trip to Milton and conditions in the countries visited. She described the awful hunger of the people in France, Italy, Germany and England — no clothing and no homes or whole families in one room. She said Europe is teeming with people going around and nothing to do. We can't have peace when people are hungry, no clothes, no work and no education. An educated people who have learned to live with their fellow-man goes a long way to promote peace. We should be thankful for homes, clothing, folks and friends and space for work to do as long as God gives us strength to do it. Let us keep up the morale of our country and thank God for our forward look. Reading by Mrs. Arthur Ruddell and Current Events were given by Mrs. Hector Bird and the meeting closed with a social hour.

Rev. J. L. Blair of Milton had charge of the service on Sunday morning. Three little children were presented for baptism, Lois Alma daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McNabb, David Allin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Austin and Thelma Rose, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Carney. The beautiful solo "My Silent House of Prayer" was sung by Mrs. J. H. Hunter. Mr. Len Coxe was received into membership of the church and the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered at the close of the service. Visitors at this service were Mr. and Mrs.

Malcolm McNabb, Mrs. Swanston, Miss Beatrice Swanston and Mr. Milton Swanston of Rockwood.

Our prominent swine breeder, Mr. T. J. Brownridge, was official judge of the Berkshire swine, at the Royal Winter Fair last week.

Mr. C. B. Dick has received word that his brother Mr. Charlie Dick has a broken back in Florida. At time of writing no particulars are known, but it is hoped things are not too serious.

St. George's Centennial Year

1852-1952

O clothe us with Thy heavenly armour, Lord.
Thy trusty shield, Thy sword of love divine;
Our inspiration be Thy constant word:
We ask no victories that are not Thine;
Give or withhold, let pain or pleasure be:
Enough to know that we are serving Thee.

"It's the convenience that counts"

"When I have to run into town for something, it is pretty handy just to go to the gate and jump on the bus. Farmers on or near the highways really appreciate this great convenience. The bus service comes in very handy too for longer trips and helps us to enjoy many visits back and forth with our friends in the city."
